NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: May 4, 2015

Released: May 4, 2015

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION:

1. In this Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture ("NAL") issued pursuant to Section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the "Act"), and Section 1.80 of the Commission's Rules (the "Rules"), we find that Son Broadcasting, Inc. (the "Licensee"), licensee of Station KCHF, Santa Fe, New Mexico ("KCHF"), willfully and/or repeatedly violated Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules by failing to file with the Commission in a timely manner Children's Television Programming Reports (FCC Form 398) for eight quarters and Section 73.3514(a) of the Rules by failing to report those late filings in its renewal application.

2. Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of Six Thousand Dollars ($6,000).

II. BACKGROUND

3. Section 73.3526 of the Rules requires each commercial broadcast licensee to maintain a public inspection file containing specific types of information related to station operations. As set forth in subsection 73.3526(e)(11)(iii), each commercial television licensee is required to prepare and place in its public inspection file a Children's Television Programming Report for each calendar quarter reflecting, inter alia, the efforts that it made during that quarter to serve the educational and informational needs of children. Those reports must be prepared and placed in the public file by the 10th day after the close of the reporting quarter. That subsection also requires licensees to file the reports with the Commission and to publicize the existence and location of the reports. A staff review of the Station's electronic public file has revealed that the station failed to file eight Children's Television Programming Reports in a timely manner.<sup>5</sup>

4. Section 73.3514(a) of the Rules provides that “[e]ach application shall include all information called for by the particular form on which the application is required to be filed ....”<sup>6</sup> Section IV, Question 3 of the Form 303-S license renewal application requires licensees to certify “that the documentation, required by 47 C.F.R. Section 73.3526 ... has been placed in the station’s public inspection file at the appropriate times.” In its renewal application filed on May 30, 2014, the Licensee failed to disclose that it filed its Children’s Television Programming Reports late. Although the Licensee finally disclosed these late filings in an amendment six months later on December 15, 2014, this late disclosure does not exonerate the Licensee from its violation of the certification and disclosure rule in the renewal application. At the time the Video Division completed its review of Licensee’s renewal application, the Licensee had not disclosed the eight late-filed children’s reports at issue. More importantly, by the time Licensee disclosed its late-filed reports, the deadline by which the public had the opportunity to file a petition to deny Licensee’s renewal application had long expired.<sup>7</sup> This delay deprived the public the opportunity to fully review the station’s TV issues/programs lists prior to the deadline for submitting a petition to deny.

III. DISCUSSION

5. This NAL is issued pursuant to Section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, any person who is determined by the Commission to have “willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission... shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.”<sup>8</sup> Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.<sup>9</sup> Furthermore, the Commission has held that any inadvertent errors, oversights or failures to become familiar with Commission requirements are willful violations.<sup>10</sup> The legislative history to Section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,<sup>11</sup> and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the Section 503(b) context.<sup>12</sup> Section 312(f)(2) of the Act also provides that “[t]he term ‘repeated,’ when used with reference to the commission or omission of any act, means the commission or omission of such act more than once or, if such <sup>5</sup> Licensee filed its Children’s Television Programming Reports late for the fourth quarter of 2006, the first quarter of 2007, the fourth quarter of 2007, the first quarter of 2008, the second quarter of 2009, the fourth quarter of 2011, and the third and fourth quarters of 2012.

<sup>7</sup> See 47 C.F.R. § 73.3516(e) (stating that “a petition to deny an application for renewal of license of an existing broadcast station will be considered as timely filed if it is tendered for filing by the end of the first day of the last full calendar month of the expiring license term). Since Licensee’s license expired on October 1, 2014, the public would have had up until the end of the day on September 1, 2014 to file a petition to deny.

<sup>10</sup> See PJB Communications of Virginia, Inc., Memorandum Opinion and Order 7 FCC Rcd 2088 (1992) (asserting that “[t]he fact that a licensee’s violation occurred through inadvertence does not prevent it from being willful. It is not necessary that the violation be intentional”); see also Southern California, 6 FCC Rcd at 4387 (finding that “inadvertence ... is at best, ignorance of the law, which the Commission does not consider a mitigating circumstance”); Standard Communications Corp., Memorandum Opinion and Order, 1 FCC Rcd 358 (1986) (stating that “employee acts or omissions, such as clerical errors in failing to file required forms, do not excuse violations”).

commission or omission is continuous, for more than one day.”<sup>13</sup>

6. The Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and Section 1.80(b) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for failure to file a required form or information.<sup>14</sup> In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factors enumerated in Section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act, including “the nature, circumstances, extent, and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”<sup>15</sup> The Licensee willfully and/or repeatedly violated Section 73.3526(e)(11)(iii) of the Rules by failing to file in a timely manner eight Children’s Television Programming Reports and Section 73.3514(a) of the Rules<sup>16</sup> for failing to report those late filings in its renewal application. In this case we propose a total forfeiture in the amount of $6,000—$3,000 for the Licensee’s failure to file its Children’s Television Programming Reports in a timely manner and $3,000 for Licensee’s failure to report those late filings in its renewal application.
