FCC ANNOUNCES THE RECHARTER, CHAIR, MEMBERSHIP, AND FIRST MEETING OF THE COMMUNICATIONS SECURITY, RELIABILITY, AND INTEROPERABILITY COUNCIL

This Public Notice serves as notice that, consistent with the Federal Advisory Committee Act,<sup>1</sup> Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) Chairman Thomas Wheeler has rechartered the Communications Security, Reliability, and Interoperability Council (CSRIC or Council) and appointed its Chair and members. CSRIC V will hold its first meeting on Wednesday, June 24, 2015, beginning at 1:00 p.m., in the Commission Meeting Room at FCC Headquarters, located at 445 12th Street, SW, Room TW-C305, Washington, DC 20554. Notice of this meeting was published in the Federal Register on May 20, 2015.<sup>2</sup>

On March 19, 2015, pursuant to the Federal Advisory Committee Act, the Commission renewed the CSRIC charter for a period of two years, through March 18, 2017.<sup>3</sup> Under the charter, the duties of CSRIC may include:

- Developing and recommending best practices, activities, and actions, if any, the FCC should take to promote reliable communications services, including 911, Enhanced 911, and Next Generation 911 service.
- Identifying and recommending to the FCC best practices, activities, and actions, if any, the FCC should take to make communications networks, including broadband networks and Voice over Internet Protocol systems, more secure and resilient.
- Leveraging existing alerting platforms, developing recommendations for the FCC to enhance the utility of timely and accurate emergency alerts and warnings.
- Developing and providing to the Commission recommendations to remove barriers and encourage sharing of cybersecurity information between companies in the communications sector. This work should leverage and ultimately compliment the work of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security will be doing to establish Information Sharing and Analysis Organization standards.

- Developing and providing to the Commission recommendations to improve cyber workforce capacity building in support of the communications section and public safety, leveraging among other thing previous work by the National Institute for Cybersecurity Education.
- Making recommendations with respect to such additional topics as the FCC may specify.

Chairman Wheeler has designated John Schanz, Executive Vice President and Chief Network Officer for Comcast Cable, as Chair of the Council. A full list of Council members is attached to this Public Notice. Additional information about CSRIC V is available at <https://www.fcc.gov/encyclopedia/communications-security-reliability-and-interoperability-council-v>.

Members of the general public may attend the meeting. The FCC will attempt to accommodate as many attendees as possible; however, admittance will be limited to seating availability. The Commission will also provide audio and/or video coverage of the meeting over the Internet from the FCC's web page at www.fcc.gov/live.

Open captioning will be provided for this event. Other reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request. Requests for such accommodations should be submitted via e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or by calling the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at (202) 418-0530 (voice), (202) 418-0432 (TTY). Such requests should include a detailed description of the accommodation needed. In addition, please include a way for the FCC to contact the requester if more information is needed to fill the request. Please allow at least five days' advance notice; last minute requests will be accepted, but may not be possible to accommodate.

The public may submit written comments before the meeting to Jeffery Goldthorp, the FCC's Designated Federal Officer for the CSRIC by e-mail to jeffery.goldthorp@fcc.gov or U.S. Postal Service Mail to Jeffery Goldthorp, Associate Bureau Chief, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, 445 12th Street, SW, Room 7-A325, Washington, DC 20554.
