PUBLIC SAFETY AND HOMELAND SECURITY BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON REGION 6 (NORTHERN CALIFORNIA) 700 MHZ REGIONAL PLAN AMENDMENT

WT Docket No. 02-378

Comments Due: March 11, 2016

Introduction. On October 27, 2015, the Region 6 (Northern California)¹ 700 MHz Regional Planning Committee (RPC) submitted a proposed modification (Plan Amendment) to amend its 700 MHz Public Safety Plan² for General Use spectrum in the 769-775/799-805 MHz band.³ For the reasons discussed below, we seek comment on the Region 6 700 MHz Plan Amendment.

Background. In 1998, the Commission established a structure to allow RPCs optimal flexibility to meet state and local needs, encourage innovative use of the spectrum, and accommodate new and as yet unanticipated developments in technology and equipment.⁴ The Commission's rules require each of the fifty-five RPCs to submit its plan for the General Use spectrum.⁵ The Commission's role in relation to the RPCs is limited to (1) defining the regional boundaries; (2) requiring fair and open procedures, i.e., requiring notice, opportunity for comment, and reasonable consideration; (3) specifying the elements that all regional plans must include; and (4) reviewing and accepting proposed plans (or amendments to approved plans) or rejecting them with an explanation.⁶

² See Letter from John Lemmon, Chair, Region 6 700 MHz Regional Planning Committee, to John Evanoff, Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau, Federal Communications Commission, WT Docket No. 02-378 (filed Oct. 27, 2015) (Cover Letter) and accompanying Plan Amendment.

⁴ See 47 CFR § 90.527; see also Development of Operational, Technical and Spectrum Requirements for Meeting Federal, State and Local Public Safety Agency Communication Requirements Through the Year 2010, First Report and Order and Third Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 14 FCC Rcd 152 (1998) (First Report and Order); Development of Operational, Technical and Spectrum Requirements For Meeting Federal, State and Local Public Safety Agency Communication Requirements Through the Year 2010, Second Memorandum Opinion and Order, 15 FCC Rcd 16844 (2000).

⁵ See 47 CFR § 90.527. Each RPC must incorporate certain common elements into its 700 MHz plan. A list of 700 MHz RPCs and region activities is available at <http://www.fcc.gov/pshs/public-safety-spectrum/700-MHz/>.

⁶ First Report and Order, 14 FCC Rcd at 195 para. 87.

On October 17, 2014, the Commission adopted a Report and Order revising the rules governing the 700 MHz public safety narrowband channels.⁷ Specifically, the Commission released the narrowband reserve channels (twenty four 12.5 kHz channels) for General Use under the administration of the RPCs for the benefit of state and local public safety users.⁸

In the T-Band markets,⁹ the Commission released the reserve channels for General Use under RPC administration with priority access given to T-Band incumbents within 128 km of the city center coordinates as specified in Sections 90.303 and 90.305¹⁰ of the Commission's rules. Priority access is also afforded any T-band incumbent that received a waiver of the 128 km distance requirement.¹¹ Outside the T-Band markets the Commission authorized the RPCs to assign (1) up to eight 12.5 kHz former reserve channels for deployable trunked systems and (2) sixteen 12.5 kHz channels for General Use, including vehicular mobile repeaters (MO3).¹² Thus, the Commission stated, "RPCs have the flexibility to designate a mixture of General Use and temporary (deployable trunked infrastructure) channels in their Regional Plans."¹³

On January 9, 2015, the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau (PSHSB) provided guidance on licensing the former reserve channels.¹⁴ On April 23, 2015 the PSHSB approved the channels recommended by the National Public Safety Telecommunications Council (NPSTC) and the National Regional Planning Council (NRPC) for deployable trunked systems.¹⁵ Conforming regional plan amendments are due by October 30, 2015.¹⁶

Region 6 Major Amendments. The Region 6 Plan Amendment changes the plan to incorporate the former reserve channels.¹⁷ The modified plan allocates all 24 reserve channels as general use channels within the San Francisco Bay UHF T-Band area, available in accordance with the Report and

*Order.*¹⁸ Outside the San Francisco Bay UHF T-Band area, the Region 6 Plan Amendment allocates six reserve channels for Deployable Trunked Systems as recommended by NPSTC and the NRPC.¹⁹ The remaining 18 reserve channels are allocated for general use on an as needed basis.²⁰ The plan also identifies the eight newly created air-ground channels²¹ and acknowledges that the air-ground channels will be administered by the State of California.²²

All three regions adjacent to Region 6 – Region 5 (Southern California), Region 27 (Nevada) and Region 35 (Oregon) – reviewed the Region 6 Plan Amendment and provided letters of concurrence.²³ We have reviewed the Region 6 Plan Amendment and tentatively accept the Plan Amendment.²⁴

Request for Comments on the Region 6 Plan Amendment. Prior to taking further action on the Plan Amendment, by this Public Notice we solicit comments on the Region 6 Plan Amendment. If no party raises an objection during the comment period, the Region 6 Plan Amendment will be deemed approved without further action by the PSHSB.²⁵ We note that the reserve channels will be available for licensing by T-Band incumbents upon approval of the Region 6 Plan Amendment and that such incumbents will receive priority access to the reserve channels in the San Francisco T-Band market through January 9, 2020.²⁶
