We remind potential auction participants that the period for making an initial commitment in the reverse auction of the broadcast incentive auction (Auction 1001) will open at 10:00 a.m. ET on March 28, 2016, and close at 6:00 p.m. ET on March 29, 2016. The initial commitment bidding software will be available during a preview period that will open at 10:00 a.m. ET on March 24, 2016 and remain open until the initial commitment window opens.

The workshop will be held in the Commission Meeting Room at FCC Headquarters in Washington, DC, and is open to the public. All attendees are advised to arrive approximately 30 minutes prior to the start of the workshop to allow sufficient time to go through the security process for admission to FCC Headquarters. Attendees are encouraged to pre-register by submitting their names and company affiliations via email to auCTION1001@fcc.gov in order to expedite the check-in process the day of the event. Please use "Initial Commitment Workshop" as the subject line in your email.

The workshop will also be streamed live with open captioning over the Internet from the FCC's webpage at www.fcc.gov/general/live. During the event, those watching the live video stream of the event may email event-related questions to auction1001@fcc.gov. After the event, a recording of the workshop will be available for streaming. The email address auction1001@fcc.gov will remain available for questions. Attendance at the workshop is not required, but we encourage applicants to attend or view the event online.

Open captioning will be provided for this event. Other reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request. Please include a description of the accommodation needed and contact information in the event more information is needed. Requests should be made as early as possible. Last minute requests will be accepted, but may be impossible to fill. Send an email to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at 202-418-0530 (voice), 202-418-0432 (TTY).
