ACCESSIBILITY RECORDKEEPING COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATION AND CONTACT INFORMATION REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR ENTITIES SUBJECT TO SECTIONS 255, 716, AND 718 OF THE COMMUNICATIONS ACT

Application to Broadband Internet Access Service Providers

On March 4, 2016, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) released a Public Notice to remind service providers and equipment manufacturers that are subject to section 255, 716, or 718 of the Communications Act of their obligation to maintain records of the efforts they take to implement these accessibility requirements. The Commission also reminded these entities of their obligation to file their annual recordkeeping certifications and required contact information by April 1, 2016, in the “Recordkeeping Compliance Certification and Contact Information Registry” (RCCCI Registry), a web-based system designed to facilitate compliance with these obligations under section 717 of the Communications Act.

In the 2015 Open Internet Order, the Commission reclassified broadband Internet access service (BIAS) as a telecommunications service that is subject to the Commission’s regulatory authority under Title II of the Communications Act regardless of the technological platform over which the service is offered. Although the Commission exercised its forbearance authority broadly, it did not forbear from applying section 255 of the Communications Act and the Commission’s implementing rules, which require telecommunications service providers and equipment manufacturers to make their services and equipment accessible to individuals with disabilities, if readily achievable.

While that substantive section 255 obligation is now in effect, the recordkeeping and RCCCI Registry requirements will not be enforced against BIAS providers until the Commission receives approval from the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of

For instance, some BIAS providers bundle e-mail, a type of ACS that is subject to section 716, with broadband Internet access service. Such a provider must, with respect to its e-mail offering, maintain records of efforts to implement accessibility under section 716 and file annual recordkeeping certifications and required contact information by April 1, 2016, as set forth in the March 4, 2016 Public Notice.
