WIRELINE COMPETITION BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT IN CONNECTION WITH COURT REMAND OF TARIFF INVESTIGATION ORDER

WC Docket No. 15-247

Comment Date: December 4, 2017
Reply Comment Date: December 19, 2017

In this Public Notice, the Wireline Competition Bureau invites parties to file comments in connection with the remand by the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit of the Commission's Tariff Investigation Order (Order).<sup>1</sup> In the Order, the Commission found that certain provisions in tariffed pricing plans for business data services (BDS) offered by AT&T, CenturyLink, Frontier and Verizon were unlawful.<sup>2</sup> AT&T sought court review of the Order and asserts that the Order is contrary to the D.C. Circuit's decision in BellSouth v. FCC that vacated an earlier Commission order finding that certain other BDS tariff terms were unlawful.<sup>3</sup>

The Commission filed a Motion for Voluntary Remand with the court, acknowledging that the Order does not address the BellSouth v. FCC decision.<sup>4</sup> The Commission also explained that because "the composition of the Commission has changed since the agency issued the Order," "a majority of the current Commission dissented from the Order," and remand would therefore allow the Commission to reconsider its determination "separate and apart from Bell[S]outh."<sup>5</sup> Sprint and INCOMPAS opposed the Commission's motion, asserting that the BellSouth decision is not relevant to the Commission's analysis in the Order.<sup>6</sup> The D.C. Circuit granted the Commission's motion and remanded the Order to the Commission for further proceedings.<sup>7</sup>

Accordingly, in this Public Notice, we seek comment on the issues raised by the D.C. Circuit's Remand Order. Specifically, we ask parties to address issues that will permit the Commission "to consider the extent to which the reasoning in the Order is compatible with the Bell[S]outh decision . . . or to otherwise reconsider its determination" that the tariff provisions in question were unlawful.<sup>8</sup>

<sup>8</sup> See FCC Motion at 3 ("Because that [BellSouth] case, like the Order on review, addresses the lawfulness of BDS tariff terms, the Commission believes that it would be appropriate to consider the extent to which the reasoning in the Order is compatible with the Bell[S]outh decision."); FCC Reply at 3 (seeking "to revisit this Order, in light of Bell[S]outh or otherwise"). The Commission has sought comment on court remands of other orders released by the Commission.
