FCC ANNOUNCES WORKING GROUP MEMBERS OF THE COMMUNICATIONS SECURITY, RELIABILITY, AND INTEROPERABILITY COUNCIL AND THE DATE OF THE NEXT CSRIC MEETING

This Public Notice serves as notice that the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) has appointed members to serve on the working groups of the Communications Security, Reliability, and Interoperability Council (CSRIC or Council).[1] The members of these working groups are listed in Appendix A. This Public Notice also serves as notification that the next CSRIC Meeting will be held on October 26.[2]

The CSRIC is organized under, and operates in accordance with, the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA).[3] The CSRIC's mission is to provide advice and recommendations to the Commission to improve the security, reliability, and interoperability of the nation's communications systems.[4] The newly-chartered CSRIC held its first meeting on Friday, June 23, at which time FCC Chairman Ajit Pai announced the topics of the working groups.[5]

More information on CSRIC can be found at https://www.fcc.gov/about-fcc/advisory-committees/communications-security-reliability-and-interoperability-council. You may also contact Jeffery Goldthorp, Designated Federal Official for CSRIC at (202) 418-1096 (voice) or jeffery.goldthorp@fcc.gov (e-mail) or Suzon Cameron, Deputy Designated Federal Official for CSRIC at (202) 418-1916 (voice) or suzon.cameron@fcc.gov (e-mail).
