The meeting is open to the public, but admittance will be limited to seating availability. Audio/video coverage of the meeting will be broadcast live with open captioning over the Internet from the FCC's web page at www.fcc.gov/live. The FCC's webcast is free to the public. Audience members in attendance will have an opportunity to ask questions of the participants directly, and audience members participating via webcast may email event-related questions to livequestions@fcc.gov. Depending on the volume of questions and time constraints, the discussion moderators will work to respond to as many questions as possible during the workshop. The meeting is open to the public but admittance will be limited to seating availability.

In addition to open captioning, reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request. Include a description of the accommodation you will need and tell us how to contact you if we need more information. Make your request as early as possible. Last minute requests will be accepted, but may be impossible to fill. Send an e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at 202-418-0530 (voice), 202-418-0432 (TTY).

For additional information about the workshop, please contact Justin Cain of the Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau at (202) 418-2924 or Justin.Cain@fcc.gov.
