FCC ANNOUNCES TECHNOLOGICAL ADVISORY COUNCIL MEETING ON December 4, 2019

The FCC's Technological Advisory Council, comprised of a diverse group of leading technology experts, provides technical expertise to the Commission to identify important areas of innovation and develop informed technology policies supporting the United States' competitiveness in the global economy. The TAC is helping the Commission to continue the momentum spurred by the National Broadband Plan to maximize the use of broadband to advance national interests and create jobs.

The next meeting of the TAC will be held on Wednesday, December 4, 2019, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. in the Commission Meeting Room, 445 12th Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. The public is invited to attend.

The planned meeting on Wednesday, December 4, 2019 will discuss progress on work initiatives from the previous meeting and provide the final recommendations from each working group.

Dennis Roberson, Executive Chairman of entigenlogic, serves as Chairman of the Council. Michael Ha, Chief of the Policy and Rules Division, serves as the Designated Federal Officer. Julius Knapp, Chief of the Office of Engineering and Technology is the Alternate Designated Federal Officer.
