ORDER

Adopted: August 15, 2019

Released: August 15, 2019

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

1. To preserve and protect the unique purpose of the EAS Tones, the Commission enforces laws prohibiting the use of the tones, or simulations of them, except in actual emergencies, authorized tests of the EAS, or qualified PSAs.¹ The Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (Commission) has entered into a Consent Decree to resolve its investigation into whether AMC Networks, Inc. (AMC) violated laws governing the Emergency Alert System (EAS) by improperly transmitting or causing the transmission of EAS codes or the Attention Signal, or recordings or simulations thereof (collectively, EAS Tones), in an episode of the AMC Network’s television program, The Walking Dead, in the absence of any actual emergency, authorized test of the EAS, or qualified public service announcement (PSA).² These laws preserve and protect the ability of authentic EAS Tones to be heeded and perform important functions during actual emergencies, such as gaining the listener’s or viewer’s attention prior to the transmission of potentially life-saving information and conveying specially coded signals to activate critical emergency equipment. To settle this matter, AMC admits to transmitting or causing the transmission of simulated EAS Tones multiple times during the Omega episode of The Walking Dead in the absence of an actual emergency, authorized test of the EAS, or qualified PSA. AMC also agrees to implement a compliance plan and pay a $104,000 civil penalty.

2. The EAS is the national public warning system that requires broadcasters, cable television operators, wireline video service providers, satellite digital audio radio service providers, and direct broadcast satellite providers to supply the communications capability to the President of the United States to address the American public during a national emergency.³ Federal, state, and local authorities may also use the EAS to deliver emergency information, such as AMBER alerts and weather information targeted to specific areas.

3. The Commission has repeatedly warned that the use of simulated or actual EAS Tones for non-authorized purposes—such as commercial or entertainment purposes—can lead to dangerous “alert fatigue” whereby the public becomes desensitized to the alerts, questioning whether the alerts are for a real, imminent threat or some other cause.⁴ Moreover, because the EAS Tones include operative data elements, the misuse of simulated or actual EAS Tones may result in false activations of the EAS that can spread false information or lock out legitimate activations of the EAS.⁵ Unauthorized use of the EAS Tones thus presents a substantial threat to public safety.

4. After reviewing the terms of the Consent Decree and evaluating the facts before us, we find that the public interest would be served by adopting the Consent Decree and terminating the referenced investigation regarding AMC's compliance with section 11.45 of the Commission's rules (Rules).⁶

5. In the absence of material new evidence relating to this matter, we do not set for hearing the question of AMC's basic qualifications to hold or obtain any Commission license or authorization.⁷

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to section 4(i) of the Act⁸ and the authority delegated by sections 0.111 and 0.311 of the Rules,⁹ the attached Consent Decree IS ADOPTED and its terms incorporated by reference.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the above-captioned investigation IS TERMINATED.

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any third-party complaints and allegations against AMC related to the above-captioned investigation that are pending before the Bureau as of the date of this Consent Decree ARE DISMISSED.

9. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this Order and Consent Decree shall be sent by first class mail and certified mail, return receipt requested, to James G. Gallagher, Executive Vice President and General Counsel, AMC Networks, Inc., 11 Penn Plaza, New York, New York 10001, and to AMC's counsel, Tara M. II. BACKGROUND

3. Section 11.45 of the Rules prohibits the transmission of false or deceptive “EAS codes or Attention Signal[s], or a recording or simulation thereof, in any circumstance other than in an actual National, State or Local Area emergency or authorized test of the EAS, or as specified in [sections] 10.520(d), 11.46, and 11.61 of this chapter.”⁴

4. AMC is a media and entertainment company headquartered in New York City that owns and operates several widely distributed cable television networks, including AMC Network.⁵ The

⁴ 47 CFR § 11.45. Section 10.520(d) provides that “no person may transmit or cause to transmit the WEA common audio attention signal, or a recording or simulation thereof, in any circumstance other than in an actual National, State or Local Area emergency or authorized test, except as designed and used for Public Service Announcements.” Id. § 10.520(d). Section 11.46 provides that “EAS Participants may use the EAS Attention Signal and a simulation of the EAS codes as provided by FEMA in EAS Public Service Announcements (PSAs) (including commercially-sponsored announcements, infomercials, or programs) provided by federal, state, and local government entities, or non-governmental organizations, to raise public awareness about emergency alerting.” Id. § 11.46. Section 11.61 provides that “EAS Participants shall conduct tests [of EAS procedures] at regular intervals.” Id. § 11.61.

⁵ Response to Letter of Inquiry, from Tara M. Corvo, Counsel to AMC Networks Inc., to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC at 2 (Apr. 5, 2019) (on file in EB-IHD-19-00028607) (LOI Response).

Walking Dead television program is included as part of AMC Network's programming, which is carried by cable and satellite broadcast systems throughout the country.⁶

5. In February 2019, the Commission became aware that AMC had allegedly transmitted EAS attention signals, or simulations thereof, during the Omega Episode absent an actual emergency, authorized EAS test, or qualified PSA.⁷ The Bureau inquired and directed AMC to respond to the allegations by letter, dated March 6, 2019,⁸ to which AMC timely responded on April 5, 2019,⁹ and in a subsequent supplemental submission.¹⁰

6. The Investigation revealed that AMC incorporated simulated EAS Tones into two different scenes of the Omega Episode: once at the opening of the episode and again approximately eight minutes into the program.¹¹ AMC distributed the Omega Episode for transmission on cable and satellite systems throughout the country on eight separate instances between February 17, 2019, and March 3, 2019.¹² None of the transmissions of the Omega Episode that included the EAS Tones were made in connection with an actual emergency, authorized test of the EAS, or qualified PSA.¹³ AMC explains that the EAS Tones were "inadvertently" included in the Omega Episode, which depicted a "simulated emergency."¹⁴

7. To resolve the Investigation, the Parties now enter into this Consent Decree to ensure AMC's future compliance with the EAS Laws.
