NOTICE CONCERNING EX PARTE STATUS OF PRESENTATIONS RELATED TO COMMUNICATIONS SECURITY, RELIABILITY, AND INTEROPERABILITY COUNCIL

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) recently announced the next meeting of its Communications Security, Reliability, and Interoperability Council (CSRIC or Council), to be held on Friday, July 19, 2019.¹ The mission of the CSRIC is to provide advice and recommendations to the Commission regarding ways the FCC can promote security, reliability, and interoperability of communications systems. The CSRIC is organized under, and operates in accordance with, the provisions of the Federal Advisory Committee Act (FACA).²

Pursuant to the FACA, the Commission is responsible for oversight of the CSRIC, including its working groups.³ As a result, FCC staff or Commissioners may participate in or attend meetings or other activities held by the CSRIC and its subcommittees and working groups. In light of this, we are announcing that, pursuant to section 1.1200(a) of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 1.1200(a), presentations to the CSRIC, including to its subcommittees and working groups, and at any roundtable discussions sponsored by the CSRIC, as well as presentations between CSRIC members (including members of any subcommittees or working groups) and FCC staff or Commissioners incidental to and in connection with such CSRIC meetings or roundtable discussions, will be treated as exempt presentations for ex parte purposes.⁴ This exemption covers presentations from CSRIC members to FCC staff and Commissioners in other settings only to the extent that the CSRIC members are presenting the views of the CSRIC or its working groups, as opposed to an individual member's own views or that of a member's organization. We find that this modification of the ex parte rules is in the public interest because it will allow the CSRIC to develop and shape its advice and recommendations to the Commission more efficiently and effectively.⁵

² See 5 U.S.C. App. 2.

³ FCC Announces the Rechartering of the Communications Security, Reliability, and Interoperability Council for a Seventh Two-Year Term and Solicits Nominations for Membership, Public Notice, DA 19-292, 2019 WL 1724152, at *1 (Apr. 16, 2019).

⁵ 47 CFR §§ 1.1202(a) (“Where the public interest so requires in a particular proceeding, the Commission and its staff retain the discretion to modify the applicable ex parte rules by order, letter, or public notice.”).

We recognize that some issues may be addressed by the CSRIC that are the subject of pending FCC proceedings. The Commission will not rely in these proceedings on any information submitted to the CSRIC, or to any of its subcommittees, working groups, or sponsored roundtables, or information conveyed by CSRIC members (including members of any subcommittees or working groups) to FCC staff or Commissioners unless that information is first placed in the record of the relevant proceeding.⁶

Additional information regarding the CSRIC can be found at <https://www.fcc.gov/about-fcc/advisory-committees/communications-security-reliability-and-interoperability-council-vii>.
