WIRELINE COMPETITION BUREAU INVITES COMMENT ON CALLER ID AUTHENTICATION PROGRESS FOR REPORT TO CONGRESS

WC Docket No. 20-323

Comments Due: October 16, 2020

Reply Comments Due: October 26, 2020

To facilitate preparation of a report to Congress required by the Pallone-Thune Telephone Robocall Abuse Criminal Enforcement and Deterrence (TRACED) Act, the Wireline Competition Bureau (Bureau) invites comment on the extent to which providers of voice service have implemented caller ID authentication frameworks in the IP and non-IP portions of their networks and on the efficacy of those frameworks in addressing all aspects of caller ID authentication.¹

The TRACED Act requires that the Commission, as part of the report, analyze “the extent to which providers of voice service have implemented” STIR/SHAKEN in their IP networks and a non-IP caller ID authentication solution in their non-IP networks.² This analysis must also investigate “whether the availability of necessary equipment and equipment upgrades has impacted such implementation.”³ The TRACED Act also requires that the Commission assess the efficacy of STIR/SHAKEN and non-IP caller ID authentication solutions in “addressing all aspects of call authentication.”⁴ The Bureau invites comment on each of the topics that must be addressed in the report. Regarding a non-IP solution, the Bureau seeks comment not only on the extent to which voice service providers have implemented such a solution, but also the extent to which industry has made progress in developing such a solution. The Bureau also invites comment on the benefits of caller ID authentication technologies for consumers and on how best to evaluate the effectiveness of caller ID authentication frameworks given that such technologies are not yet ubiquitously deployed.

Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter's written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum. Documents shown or given to Commission staff during ex parte meetings are deemed to be written ex parte presentations and must be filed consistent with rule 1.1206(b). Participants in these proceedings should familiarize themselves with the Commission's ex parte rules.
