MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER
AND
NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE

Adopted: December 3, 2020

Released: December 3, 2020

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Media Bureau has before it the application (Application)1 of Rejoice HD, Inc. (Licensee), for renewal of license for Station W18BS (Station). In this Memorandum Opinion and Order and Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (NAL),2 we find that the Licensee apparently willfully violated section 73.3539(a)3 of the Rules by failing to timely file a license renewal application for the Station. Based upon our review of the facts and circumstances before us, we conclude that the Licensee is apparently liable for a monetary forfeiture in the amount of three thousand dollars ($3,000).

II. BACKGROUND

2. Section 73.3539(a) of the Rules requires that applications for renewal of license for broadcast stations must be filed "not later than the first day of the fourth full calendar month prior to the expiration date of the license sought to be renewed."4 An application for renewal of the Station's license should have been filed by June 1, 2020, the first day of the fourth full calendar month prior to the Station's October 1, 2020, license expiration date.5 The Application was not filed until July 13, 2020. The Licensee states that it "was unaware that the deadline had passed for Virginia LPTV stations."6

III. DISCUSSION

3. Proposed Forfeiture. In this case, the Licensee failed to file the Application on or before June 1, 2020, as required by section 73.3539(a) of the Rules. The Application was not received until July 13, 2020. Moreover, the explanation by the Licensee—that they were unaware of the filing deadline—does not excuse the late filing.

2 This NAL is issued pursuant to sections 309(k) and 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act), and section 1.80 of the Commission's rules (Rules). See 47 U.S.C. §§ 309(k), 503(b); 47 CFR § 1.80. The Bureau has delegated authority to issue this NAL under section 0.283 of the Rules. See 47 CFR § 0.283.

6 W18BS Renewal, Request to Accept Late-Filed Renewal Application.

4. This NAL is issued pursuant to section 503(b)(1)(B) of the Act. Under that provision, a person who is found to have willfully or repeatedly failed to comply with any provision of the Act or any rule, regulation, or order issued by the Commission, shall be liable to the United States for a forfeiture penalty.<sup>7</sup> Section 312(f)(1) of the Act defines willful as “the conscious and deliberate commission or omission of [any] act, irrespective of any intent to violate” the law.<sup>8</sup> The legislative history to section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to both sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act,<sup>9</sup> and the Commission has so interpreted the term in the section 503(b) context.<sup>10</sup>

5. The Commission’s Forfeiture Policy Statement and section 1.80(b)(9) of the Rules establish a base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for the failure to file a required form.<sup>11</sup> In determining the appropriate forfeiture amount, we may adjust the base amount upward or downward by considering the factor enumerated in section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act, including “the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation, and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.”<sup>12</sup>

6. In this case, the Licensee failed to file a timely renewal application for the Station and has not provided an explanation that would excuse the late filing. However, the Licensee did file the Application prior to the expiration of the Station’s license. Taking into consideration all of the factors required by section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act and the Forfeiture Policy Statement, we propose for the full base forfeiture amount of $3,000 for the Station’s failure to file a timely renewal.

7. License Renewal Application. In evaluating an application for license renewal, the Commission’s decision is governed by section 309(k) of the Act.<sup>13</sup> That section provides that if, upon consideration of the application and pleadings, we find that: (1) the station has served the public interest, convenience, and necessity; (2) there have been no serious violations of the Act or the Commission’s rules; and (3) there have been no other violations that taken together, constitute a pattern of abuse, then we are to grant the renewal application.<sup>14</sup> If, however, the licensee fails to meet that standard, the Commission may deny the application—after notice and opportunity for a hearing under section 309(e) of the Act—or grant the application “on terms and conditions that are appropriate, including a renewal for a term less than the maximum otherwise permitted.”<sup>15</sup>

8. We find that the Licensee’s apparent violation of section 73.3539 of the Rules does not present “serious violations” warranting designation for evidentiary hearing. Moreover, we find no evidence of violation that, when considered together, constitute a pattern of abuse.<sup>16</sup> Further, based on

<sup>16</sup> For example, we do not find here that the Licensee’s Station operation “was conducted in an exceedingly careless, inept and negligent manner and that the licensee is either incapable of correcting or unwilling to correct the operating deficiencies.” See Heart of the Black Hills Stations, Decision, 32 FCC 2d 196, 198, para. 6 (1971). Nor do we find on the record here that “the number, nature and extent” of the violations indicate that “the licensee cannot our review of the Application, we find that the Station served the public interest, convenience, and necessity during the subject license term. We will therefore grant the Application by separate action upon the conclusion of this forfeiture proceeding if there are no issues other than the apparent violation that would preclude grant of the Application.

Any claim of inability to pay must specifically identify the basis for the claim by reference to the financial documentation submitted. Inability to pay, however, is only one of several factors that the Commission will consider in determining the appropriate forfeiture, and we have discretion to not reduce or cancel the forfeiture if other prongs of 47 U.S.C. § 503(b)(2)(E) support that result.<sup>25</sup>
