ORDER TO PAY OR TO SHOW CAUSE

Adopted: February 14, 2020

Released: February 14, 2020

By the Chief, Media Bureau and the Managing Director, Office of Managing Director:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. By this Order to Pay or to Show Cause, we initiate a proceeding to revoke the license held by Del Rosario Talpa, Inc. (Licensee), for KNCR(AM), Fortuna, California (Station), for failure to pay delinquent regulatory fees, penalties, and interest owed to the Commission. For the reasons set forth below, we direct Licensee to pay its delinquent regulatory fees, including any associated interest, penalties, and administrative costs, or show cause why the payment demanded is inapplicable or should otherwise be waived or deferred.<sup>1</sup>

II. DISCUSSION

2. Under section 9 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act), and the Commission's rules (Rules), the Commission is required to "assess and collect regulatory fees" to recover the costs of certain regulatory activities.<sup>2</sup> When the required payment is received late or is incomplete, the Commission must assess a penalty equal to "25 percent of the amount of the fee which was not paid in a timely manner."<sup>3</sup>

3. For fiscal year (FY) 2007, it was September 19, 2007;<sup>4</sup> for FY 2008, it was September 25, 2008;<sup>5</sup> for FY 2012, the deadline for paying regulatory fees was September 13, 2012;<sup>6</sup> for FY 2013, it was

<sup>1</sup> In addition to unpaid regulatory fees and the penalties and interest required by section 9A(c) of the Act, 47 U.S.C. § 159A(c), Licensee's fee debt may include penalties and costs assessed under 31 U.S.C. § 3717(e). Under section 9A of the Act, 47 U.S.C. § 159A, the Commission may revoke a license for nonpayment of outstanding fees, or penalties or interest assessed under section 9A(c), but may not revoke a license for nonpayment of outstanding penalties and costs assessed under 31 U.S.C. § 3717(e). The Commission applies payment first to outstanding penalties and administrative costs, then to accrued interest, and finally, to outstanding fees. Thus, anything less than full payment of the Licensee's regulatory fee debt means that, at a minimum, it will not have wholly extinguished the outstanding fees due because outstanding fees are the last category of obligation paid. As a result, a failure to make full payment of the debt due will necessarily leave a basis for revocation under section 9A(c). See 47 CFR § 1.1940(f).

September 20, 2013;<sup>7</sup> for FY 2014, it was September 23, 2014;<sup>8</sup> for FY 2015, it was September 24, 2015;<sup>9</sup> and for FY 2016, it was September 27, 2016.<sup>10</sup> When Licensee failed to pay or only partially paid its regulatory fees by these deadlines, the Commission assessed charges that included the statutory late payment penalty required by the Act<sup>11</sup> and sections 1.1157(c)(1) and 1.1164 of the Rules,<sup>12</sup> and interest, penalties, and administrative costs required by section 3717 of Title 31 of the U.S. Code and section 1.1940 of the Rules.<sup>13</sup>

4. The Commission's records show that Licensee currently has unpaid regulatory fee debt of $1,550.00 for FY 2007; $1,675.00 for FY 2008; $2,263.92 for FY 2012; $2,290.52 for FY 2013; $2,211.43 for FY 2014; $2,138.90 for FY 2015; and $2,171.13 for FY 2016.<sup>14</sup> Additional charges will continue to accrue on these debts until they are paid in full. Demand Letters, which demanded payment of Licensee's delinquent regulatory fees, were previously sent to Licensee.<sup>15</sup> When Licensee did not pay its unpaid regulatory fee debts, the Commission transferred that debt to the Secretary of Treasury at the Treasury Department for collection.<sup>16</sup> At the Commission's request, and in order to consolidate the collection process, the Secretary of the Treasury has returned all of the previously transferred regulatory fee debt to the Commission for further collection.

5. In addition to financial penalties, section 9A(c)(4) of the Act,<sup>17</sup> and section 1.1164(f) of the Rules<sup>18</sup> grant the FCC the authority to revoke authorizations for failure to pay regulatory fees (or related interest or penalties) in a timely fashion. Accordingly, we require Licensee to file with the Media Bureau documented evidence within sixty (60) calendar days of the date of this Order that full payment of all outstanding regulatory fee debt has been made in accordance with section 1.1164(a) of the Rules,<sup>19</sup> or show cause why the payment is inapplicable or should be waived or deferred.<sup>20</sup> Licensee is hereby notified that failure to provide evidence of payment or to show cause within the time specified may result in revocation of Licensee's license for the Station.

Prior to October 1, 2018, when the RAY BAUM'S Act became effective, section 9(c)(3) authorized the Commission to revoke "any instrument of authorization held by any entity that has failed to make payment of a regulatory fee." 47 U.S.C. § 159(c)(3) (2017). <sup>20</sup> The Commission may waive, reduce, or defer payment of fee debt where good cause is shown and where waiver, reduction or deferral would promote the public interest. The Commission interprets this provision narrowly, granting relief only when a requesting party has shown extraordinary circumstances outweighing the public interest in recovering the cost of the Commission's regulatory services. A party seeking a waiver for financial hardship must conclusively prove financial hardship, providing copies of all such financial documents as are necessary to show that it lacks sufficient funds to pay its regulatory fees and maintain its service to the public. Assessment and Collection of Regulatory Fees for Fiscal Year 2019, MD Docket 19-105, Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 2019 WL 4072476, at *16 (2019).
