WIRELESS TELECOMMUNICATIONS BUREAU ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN HAND-DELIVERY FILING FOR COMMISSION'S GETTYSBURG LOCATION

ADDRESS FOR UNITED STATES POSTAL MAIL REMAINS THE SAME

As the number of reported COVID-19 cases in the United States increases and the World Health Organization has classified COVID-19 as a pandemic, the FCC will be closing its current hand-delivery filing location at the Commission's Gettysburg Location: 1270 Fairfield Road, Gettysburg, PA 17325.

Effective after 4:00 p.m. on March 26, 2020, all hand-delivered documents sent directly to the Commission's Gettysburg location via couriers such as UPS, FedEx, or messenger service must be sent to the following address:

FCC
9050 Junction Drive
Annapolis Junction, MD 20701

A courtesy copy of any application(s) with an urgent filing deadline may be sent to ULSec@fcc.gov.

Paper filings delivered after 4:00 p.m. on March 26, 2020 will be rejected, and entities should resend these documents to the Annapolis address for proper filing. The Commission will alert commercial overnight delivery couriers of this change.

Filings made through U.S. Postal Service MUST continue to be addressed to 1270 Fairfield Road, Gettysburg, PA 17325.

Any party that is unable to meet a filing deadline due to the closure may request a waiver of the applicable deadline, to the extent permitted by law.

The Commission finds it necessary at this time to make these changes to its procedures to protect the health and safety of its employees and to mitigate or slow the transmission of COVID-19 within the community. We therefore find good cause to make these changes effective as expeditiously as possible in accordance with this notice. The new procedures will remain in effect until further notice.
