WIRELINER COMPETITION BUREAU PROVIDES DETAILS ABOUT EMERGENCY BROADBAND BENEFIT PROGRAM ROUNDTABLE

Panel Discussions Will Focus on Outreach and Consumer Enrollment, and Provider Participation and Consumer Choice

WC Docket No. 20-445

By this Public Notice, the Wireline Competition Bureau (Bureau) provides additional details about the Emergency Broadband Benefit Program Roundtable Discussion that will take place on February 12, 2021, at 10:00 AM EST.<sup>1</sup> The event will be convened virtually and will be open to the public on the Internet via live feed from the FCC's webpage at www.fcc.gov/live.

Congress in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 directed the Commission to establish the $3.2 billion Emergency Broadband Benefit Program.<sup>2</sup> To further the Commission's efforts, the Bureau will host these panel discussions to provide Commission staff and interested parties an opportunity to examine actions the Commission should consider to establish the program and to enhance the public record regarding the Emergency Broadband Benefit Program.<sup>3</sup>

The event will feature opening remarks from Acting Chairwoman Rosenworcel as well as Commissioners Carr, Starks, and Simington. The roundtable discussion will consist of two, fifty-minute question-and-answer panels moderated by Bureau staff to examine key issues related to the program. The first panel will discuss Emergency Broadband Benefit Program outreach and consumer enrollment considerations. Specifically, the panel will focus on building awareness for the Emergency Broadband Benefit Program and issues the Commission should take into account to achieve an effective consumer application and enrollment experience. Panelists include:

- Matthew Gerst, Vice President, Regulatory Affairs, CTIA
- Erica Myers, Lead, Microsoft Airband US-Rural
- Travis Noland, Manager of Government Relations, Cherokee Nation
- Angela Siefer, Executive Director, National Digital Inclusion Alliance
- Trinity Thorpe-Lubneuski, Senior Director, Program Administration, Comcast Internet Essentials
- Olivia Wein, Attorney, National Consumer Law Center
- Dr. Fallon Wilson, Vice President of Policy, Multicultural Media, Telecom and Internet Council

The second panel will focus on broadband provider participation and consumer choice in the Emergency Broadband Benefit Program. The conversation will consider the current broadband marketplace and how this should inform the Commission's decisions regarding provider access to the program. Additionally, the panel will discuss the provider enrollment process and ways that process can maximize consumers' choice of robust broadband to meet their current needs. Panelists include:

- Virginia Lam Abrams, Senior Vice President, Government Affairs & Strategic Advancement, Starry, Inc.
- Brenda Victoria Castillo, President and CEO, National Hispanic Media Coalition
- Anisa Green, Director, Federal Regulatory, AT&T
- Steve Morris, Vice President & Deputy General Counsel, NCTA
- Jonathan Nez, President, Navajo Nation
- Francella Ochillo, Executive Director, Next Century Cities
- Michael Romano, Senior Vice President of Industry Affairs & Business Development, NTCA
