ORDER

Adopted: October 14, 2021

Released: October 14, 2021

By the Associate Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

1. The Enforcement Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission (Commission) has entered into a Consent Decree to resolve its investigation into whether Arctic Slope Telephone Association Cooperative, Inc. (ASTAC) timely filed an annual reliability certification regarding its 911 circuit auditing, central office backup power, and diverse network monitoring. This certification is designed to ensure that covered 911 service providers have taken reasonable measures to provide reliable 911 service by either implementing industry-backed “best practices” or alternative measures that are reasonably sufficient to ensure reliable 911 service.<sup>1</sup> To settle this matter, ASTAC admits that it failed to timely file its 2020 annual 911 reliability certification, will implement a compliance plan, and will pay a $6,000 civil penalty.

2. After reviewing the terms of the Consent Decree and evaluating the facts before us, we find that the public interest would be served by adopting the Consent Decree and terminating the referenced investigation regarding ASTAC’s compliance with section 9.19(c) of the Commission’s rules.<sup>2</sup>

3. In the absence of material new evidence relating to this matter, we do not set for hearing the question of ASTAC’s basic qualifications to hold or obtain any Commission license or authorization.<sup>3</sup>

4. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to section 4(i) of the Act<sup>4</sup> and the authority delegated by sections 0.111 and 0.311 of the Commission’s rules,<sup>5</sup> the attached Consent Decree IS ADOPTED and its terms incorporated by reference.

5. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the above-captioned matter IS TERMINATED in accordance with the terms of the attached Consent Decree.

CONSENT DECREE

1. The Enforcement Bureau of the Federal Communications Commission and Arctic Slope Telephone Association Cooperative, Inc. (ASTAC or Company), by their authorized representatives, hereby enter into this Consent Decree for the purpose of terminating the Enforcement Bureau’s investigation into whether ASTAC violated section 9.19(c) of the Rules¹ by its failure to timely file an annual 911 reliability certification for 2020, which was due by October 15, 2020. The Commission requires that a covered 911 service provider file an annual reliability certification regarding its 911 circuit auditing, central office backup power, and diverse network monitoring, and attest to whether it has met its obligation to use reasonable measures to mitigate the risk of a 911 service failure.² These requirements are designed to improve the reliability and resiliency of 911 communications networks nationwide by requiring that 911 service providers take reasonable measures to provide reliable 911 service by either implementing certain industry-backed “best practices” or by implementing alternative measures that are reasonably sufficient to ensure reliable 911 service, as evidenced by the annual reliability certification.³ To resolve this matter, ASTAC admits that it violated the Commission’s rules, will implement a compliance plan, and will pay a $6,000 civil penalty.

II. BACKGROUND

3. Under section 9.19(c) of the Rules, a covered 911 service provider must file an annual reliability certification regarding its 911 circuit auditing, central office backup power, and diverse network monitoring.<sup>6</sup> Through this annual reliability certification the provider must attest to whether it has met its obligation to implement specified best practices or reasonable alternative measures to mitigate the risk of a 911 service failure, or explain why a requirement is not applicable.<sup>7</sup>

4. Although ASTAC filed its certification as a covered 911 service provider in 2019, the Company did not timely file its certification for 2020, which was due by October 15, 2020.<sup>8</sup> On November 10, 2020, the Commission’s Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau (PSHSB) contacted

<sup>8</sup> See Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau Announces Availability of 911 Reliability Certification System for Annual Reliability Certifications, PS Docket Nos. 13-75 and 11-60, Public Notice, 35 FCC Rcd 8082 (PSHSB 2020). The 911 reliability certification should be filed electronically using the Commission’s online portal at <https://apps2.fcc.gov/rcs911/>.

ASTAC, via e-mail, about its failure to submit the 2020 annual reliability certification,<sup>9</sup> and ASTAC made the required filing on November 25, 2020 (41 days after it was due to be filed). PSHSB then referred this matter to the Enforcement Bureau for appropriate action. On May 12, 2021, the Bureau's Spectrum Enforcement Division sent a Letter of Inquiry (LOI) to ASTAC.<sup>10</sup>

5. On June 9, 2021, ASTAC submitted responses to requested information along with an accompanying affidavit.<sup>11</sup> In its LOI response, ASTAC acknowledged that it is a covered 911 service provider under the Rules and admitted it did not file the 2020 annual reliability certification until after being contacted by PSHSB on November 10, 2020. ASTAC explained, under penalty of perjury, that its failure to timely make the required filing was an oversight resulting from a change in personnel responsible for the certification filing. ASTAC also noted that it is working with regulatory counsel to put in place procedures to ensure that all 911 reliability certifications are submitted timely in the future. To settle this matter, ASTAC and the Bureau enter into this Consent Decree and agree to the following terms and conditions.

III. TERMS OF AGREEMENT

6. Adopting Order. The provisions of this Consent Decree shall be incorporated by the Bureau in an Adopting Order.

In consideration for the termination of the Investigation, ASTAC agrees to the terms, conditions, and procedures contained herein. The Bureau further agrees that, in the absence of new material evidence, it will not use the facts developed in the Investigation through the Effective Date, or the existence of this Consent Decree, to institute, any new proceeding on its own motion against ASTAC concerning the matters that were the subject of the Investigation, or to set for hearing the question of ASTAC's basic qualifications to be a Commission licensee or hold Commission licenses or authorizations based on the matters that were the subject of the Investigation.<sup>12</sup>

10. Admission of Liability. ASTAC admits for the purpose of this Consent Decree and for Commission civil enforcement purposes, and in express reliance on the provisions of paragraph 9 herein, that its actions, outlined in paragraphs 4-5 herein, violated the 911 Rules.

As part of the Compliance Training Program, Covered Employees shall be advised of the Company's obligation to report any noncompliance with the 911 Rules under paragraph 13 of this Consent Decree and shall be instructed on how to disclose noncompliance to the Compliance Officer. All Covered Employees shall be trained pursuant to the Compliance Training Program within sixty (60) calendar days after the Effective Date, except that any person who becomes a Covered Employee at any time after the initial Compliance Training Program shall be trained within thirty (30) calendar days after such person becomes a Covered Employee. In addition, each Compliance Report shall include a certification by the Compliance Officer, as an agent of and on behalf of the Company, stating that the Compliance Officer has personal knowledge that the Company: (i) has established and implemented the Compliance Plan; (ii) has utilized the Operating Procedures since the implementation of the Compliance Plan; and (iii) is not aware of any instances of noncompliance with the terms and conditions of this Consent Decree, including the reporting obligations set forth in paragraph 13 of this Consent Decree.

The Commission's adjudication of any such complaint will be based solely on the record developed in that proceeding. 17. Civil Penalty. ASTAC will pay a civil penalty to the United States Treasury in the amount of six thousand dollars ($6,000) within thirty (30) calendar days of the Effective Date. ASTAC acknowledges and agrees that upon execution of this Consent Decree, the Civil Penalty shall become a “Claim” or “Debt” as defined in 31 U.S.C. § 3701(b)(1).<sup>18</sup> Upon an Event of Default, all procedures for collection as permitted by law may, at the Commission’s discretion, be initiated. When completing FCC Form 159, enter the Account Number in block number 23A (call sign/other ID), enter the letters “FORF” in block number 24A (payment type code), and enter in block number 11 the FRN(s) captioned above (Payor FRN).<sup>21</sup> For additional detail and wire transfer instructions, go to <https://www.fcc.gov/licensing-databases/fees/wire-transfer>.
- Payment by credit card must be made by using the Commission’s Fee Filer website at <https://apps.fcc.gov/FeeFiler/login.cfm>. To pay by credit card, log-in using the FRN captioned above. If payment must be split across FRNs, complete this process for each FRN. Next, select “Pay bills” on the Fee Filer Menu, and select the bill number associated with the CD Acct. No. – the bill number is the CD Acct. No. with the first two digits excluded – and then choose the “Pay by Credit Card” option. IMPORTANT NOTE: there is a $24,999.99 limit on credit card transactions.
- Payment by ACH must be made by using the Commission’s Fee Filer website at <https://apps.fcc.gov/FeeFiler/login.cfm>. To pay by ACH, log in using the FRN captioned above. If payment must be split across FRNs, complete this process for each FRN. Next, select “Pay bills” on the Fee Filer Menu and then select the bill number associated to the CD Acct. No. – the bill number is the CD Acct. No. with the first two digits excluded (e.g., NAL 1912345678 = FCC bill Number 12345678) – and choose the “Pay from Bank Account” option. Please contact the appropriate financial institution to confirm the correct Routing Number and the correct account number from which payment will be made and verify with that financial institution that the designated account has authorization to accept ACH transactions.

18. Event of Default. ASTAC agrees that an Event of Default shall occur upon the failure by ASTAC to pay the full amount of the Civil Penalty on or before the due date specified in this Consent Decree.

19. Interest, Charges for Collection, and Acceleration of Maturity Date. After an Event of Default has occurred under this Consent Decree, the then unpaid amount of the Civil Penalty shall accrue interest, computed using the U.S. Prime Rate in effect on the date of the Event of Default plus 4.75%, from the date of the Event of Default until payment in full. Upon an Event of Default, the then unpaid amount of the Civil Penalty, together with interest, any penalties permitted and/or required by the law, including but not limited to 31 U.S.C. § 3717 and administrative charges, plus the costs of collection, litigation, and attorneys' fees, shall become immediately due and payable, without notice, presentment, demand, protest, or notice of protest of any kind, all of which are waived by ASTAC.

20. Waivers. As of the Effective Date, the Company waives any and all rights it may have to seek administrative or judicial reconsideration, review, appeal or stay, or to otherwise challenge or contest the validity of this Consent Decree and the Adopting Order. The Company shall retain the right to challenge Commission interpretation of the Consent Decree or any terms contained herein. If either Party (or the United States on behalf of the Commission) brings a judicial action to enforce the terms of the Consent Decree or the Adopting Order, neither the Company nor the Commission shall contest the validity of the Consent Decree or the Adopting Order, and the Company shall waive any statutory right to a trial de novo. The Company hereby agrees to waive any claims it may otherwise have under the Equal Access to Justice Act<sup>22</sup> relating to the matters addressed in this Consent Decree.

21. Severability. The Parties agree that if any of the provisions of the Consent Decree shall be held unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such unenforceability shall not render unenforceable the entire Consent Decree, but rather the entire Consent Decree shall be construed as if not containing the particular unenforceable provision or provisions, and the rights and obligations of the Parties shall be construed and enforced accordingly.

22. Invalidity. In the event that this Consent Decree in its entirety is rendered invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, it shall become null and void and may not be used in any manner in any legal proceeding.

23. Subsequent Rule or Order. The Parties agree that if any provision of the Consent Decree conflicts with any subsequent Rule or order adopted by the Commission (except an order specifically intended to revise the terms of this Consent Decree to which the Company does not expressly consent) that provision will be superseded by such Rule or order.

24. Successors and Assigns. ASTAC agrees that the provisions of this Consent Decree shall be binding on its successors, assigns, and transferees.

25. Final Settlement. The Parties agree and acknowledge that this Consent Decree shall constitute a final settlement between the Parties with respect to the Investigation.

26. Modifications. This Consent Decree cannot be modified without the advance written consent of both Parties.

27. Paragraph Headings. The headings of the paragraphs in this Consent Decree are inserted for convenience only and are not intended to affect the meaning or interpretation of this Consent Decree.

28. Authorized Representative. Each Party represents and warrants to the other that it has full power and authority to enter into this Consent Decree. Each person signing this Consent Decree on behalf of a Party hereby represents that he or she is fully authorized by the Party to execute this Consent Decree and to bind the Party to its terms and conditions.
