FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION ESTABLISHES DOCKET FOR PROPOSED TRANSFER OF CONTROL OF TRACFONE WIRELESS, INC. TO VERIZON COMMUNICATIONS INC.

GN Docket No. 21-112

On September 30, 2020, Verizon Communications Inc. (Verizon) filed an application for consent to transfer control of TracFone Wireless, Inc. (TracFone),¹ which holds a single international section 214 authorization,² from TracFone's 100% indirect parent, América Móvil S.A.B. de C.V. to Verizon. Verizon filed the application as part of its acquisition of TracFone, a mobile virtual network operator that offers prepaid services aimed at value-conscious consumers, and serves almost 21 million customers, including 1.7 million Lifeline customers. The purpose of this public notice is to announce the opening of a docket, GN Docket No. 21-112, which is captioned "Proposed Transfer of Control of Tracfone Wireless, Inc. to Verizon Communications Inc." and articulate the ex parte status of discussions related to the proposed transaction.

Pursuant to Section 1.1200(a) of the Commission's rules,³ the Commission may adopt modified or more stringent ex parte procedures in particular proceedings if the public interest so requires. Parties are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must contain the presentation's substance and not merely list the subjects discussed.⁵ More than a one- or two-sentence description of the views and arguments presented is generally required.⁶ The rules pertaining to oral and written presentations are set forth in section 1.1206(b).⁷

Under the Commission's current procedures,⁸ notices of the ex parte presentations, which must include a reference to GN Docket No. 21-112, shall be filed electronically through the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS) when feasible.
