CHAIRWOMAN ROSENWORCEL ANNOUNCES NEW APPOINTMENTS TO THE NATIVE NATIONS COMMUNICATIONS TASK FORCE

Chairwoman Jessica Rosenworcel today announced the appointment of eight Tribal members to the FCC's Native Nations Communications Task Force. In addition to filling seven current vacancies, the appointment of eight new Tribal members raises the total number of Tribal Task Force members from 25 to 26.¹

"I am pleased to announce the new members of the Native Nations Communications Task Force," said Chairwoman Rosenworcel. "The Task Force continues to make significant contributions to the Commission's implementation of new Congressional directives and its ongoing efforts to increase the deployment and adoption of modern communications services on Tribal lands. The additional expertise and perspectives these new members bring will benefit the Task Force's current and future work. Maintaining the Task Force is an important element of our commitment to work with Tribes on a government-to-government basis to address issues of mutual interest."

MISSION

The Task Force's mission is to provide guidance, expertise, and recommendations to specific requests from the Commission on a range of communications issues that directly or indirectly affect Tribal governments and their people. This enhances the Commission's ability to carry out its statutory responsibilities to ensure the availability of communications by wire and radio, and encourage broadband deployment to all Americans.

MEMBERS OF THE NATIVE NATIONS COMMUNICATIONS TASK FORCE

The newly appointed Tribal Task Force members are:

Sam Cohen, Santa Ynez Band of Chumash Indians

Marissa Mercurieff, Aleut Community of St. Paul (ASCPI), AK

Allyson Mitchell, St. Regis Mohawk Tribe

Travis Noland, Cherokee Nation

¹ On June 28, 2021, the Commission issued a Public Notice extending the term of the Task Force by one year, until October 24, 2022, and seeking Tribal nominations to fill Task Force vacancies. Acting Chairwoman Rosenworcel Announces Term Extension of the Native Nations Communications Task Force and Seeks Nomination for Vacancies, Public Notice, DA 21-764 (CGB June 28, 2021). On August 23, 2021 a subsequent Public Notice extended the deadline for nominations from August 27, 2021 to September 27, 2021. FCC Announces Extension of Time to Submit Applications for Vacancies on its Native Nations Communications Task Force, Public Notice, DA 21-1034 (CGB Aug. 23, 2021). At the time the Public Notices were released, there were three Tribal vacancies on the Task Force. Subsequently, four additional seats have become vacant, bringing the total to seven. In the process of reviewing the nominations, the Commission determined that increasing the number of Tribal members by one to 26 would provide the Commission a more comprehensive and diverse perspective on communications issues on Tribal lands. The new Tribal members will serve until the end of the current Task Force's extended term.
