DOMESTIC SECTION 214 APPLICATION FILED FOR THE TRANSFER OF CONTROL OF MOUNDRIDGE TELEPHONE COMPANY, MOUNDRIDGE TELCOM, INC., AND MID-KANSAS CABLE SERVICES, INC. TO RURAL TELEPHONE SERVICE COMPANY, INC.

NON-STREAMLINED PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

WC Docket No. 22-173

Comments Due: June 8, 2022
Reply Comment Due: June 15, 2022

By this Public Notice, the Wireline Competition Bureau seeks comment from interested parties on an application filed by Emmental, Inc. (Emmental), Moundridge Telephone Company (Moundridge), Moundridge Telecom, Inc. (MTI), Mid-Kansas Cable Services, Inc. (Mid-Kansas) (collectively, Transferors), and Rural Telephone Service Company, Inc. dba Nex-Tech (RTSC), together with Transferors, Applicants), pursuant to section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and sections 63.03-04 of the Commission's rules, requesting approval for the transfer of control of the Transferors to RTSC.¹

Emmental is a holding company that provides telecommunications services through its direct and indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries, Moundridge, MTI, and Mid-Kansas, each Kansas corporations.² Moundridge is an eligible telecommunications carrier (ETC) and provides incumbent local exchange carrier (LEC) services to approximately 2,100 access lines in the Moundridge and Goessel exchanges, which serve portions of McPherson, Harvey, and Marion Counties in central Kansas.³ Moundridge wholly-owns MTI, which provides resold long distance toll service in Moundridge's local exchange service area.⁴ Mid-Kansas, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Emmental, provides competitive LEC services in the McPherson and Hesston exchanges in McPherson and Harvey counties in Kansas.⁵

¹ See 47 U.S.C. § 214; 47 CFR §§ 63.03-04. See Application of Emmental, Inc., Moundridge Telephone Company, Moundridge Telcom, Inc., and Mid-Kansas Cable Services, inc., to Rural Telephone Service Company, Inc., WC Docket No 22-173 (filed Apr. 25, 2022) (Application). Applicants also filed an application for the transfer of an authorization associated with international service. On May 16, 2022, Applicants filed a supplement to their domestic section 214 application. See Supplement to the Application for Transfer of Control of Domestic and International Section 214 Authorizations, WC Docket No. 22-173 (filed May 16, 2022) (Supplement). Any action on this domestic section 214 application is without prejudice to Commission action on other related, pending applications.

² Application at 2-3.

³ Id. at 2; Supplement at 3-4. Applicants state that Moundridge participates in the Lifeline program and Affordable Connectivity Program. Supplement at 5.

⁴ Application at 2; Supplement at 4.

RTSC, a Kansas corporation, provides service as an incumbent LEC in 39 exchanges in Kansas.⁶ Applicants state that the RTSC incumbent LEC exchanges do not overlap and are not adjacent to the incumbent LEC exchanges served by Moundridge.⁷ RTSC is a cooperative owned by its subscriber members, of which no single member owns as much as 1% of RTSC.⁸ RTSC wholly-owns Nex-Tech, LLC (Nex-Tech), a Kansas limited liability company, that provides service as a competitive LEC in portions of Kansas.⁹

Pursuant to the terms of the proposed transaction, RTSC will acquire all of the outstanding common stock of Emmmental.¹⁰ As a result, Emmmental will be a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of RTSC while Moundridge, MTI, and Mid-Kansas will be indirect, wholly-owned subsidiaries of RTSC.¹¹

Applicants assert that a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity.¹² Applicants state, RTSC “has a history of consistent earnings and strong cash flow to support financing, growth, and the necessary capital upgrades to make the acquisition of the Transferors successful long-term, and enhance telecommunications and broadband service to the public.”¹³

Applicants do not request streamlined treatment for the domestic section 214 application pursuant to section 63.03 of the Commission's rules, and we accept it for non-streamlined processing.¹⁴

The proceeding in this Notice shall be treated as a "permit-but-disclose" proceeding in accordance with the Commission's ex parte rules. Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation (unless a different deadline applicable to the Sunshine period applies). Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter's written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page and/or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum. Documents shown or given to Commission staff during ex parte meetings are deemed to be written ex parte presentations and must be filed consistent with rule 1.1206(b),

¹⁵ Effective March 19, 2020, and until further notice, the Commission no longer accepts any hand or messenger delivered filings. This is a temporary measure taken to help protect the health and safety of individuals, and to mitigate the transmission of COVID-19. See FCC Announces Closure of FCC Headquarters Open Window and Change in Hand-Delivery Policy, Public Notice, 35 FCC Rcd 2788 (OS 2020).

47 CFR § 1.1206(b). Participants in this proceeding should familiarize themselves with the Commission's ex parte rules.

To allow the Commission to consider fully all substantive issues regarding the application in as timely and efficient a manner as possible, petitioners and commenters should raise all issues in their initial filings. New issues may not be raised in responses or replies.¹⁶ A party or interested person seeking to raise a new issue after the pleading cycle has closed must show good cause why it was not possible for it to have raised the issue previously. Submissions after the pleading cycle has closed that seek to raise new issues based on new facts or newly discovered facts should be filed within 15 days after such facts are discovered. Absent such a showing of good cause, any issues not timely raised may be disregarded by the Commission.
