FORFEITURE ORDER

Adopted: September 21, 2022

Released: September 21, 2022

By the Chief, Video Division, Media Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. In this Forfeiture Order, we issue a monetary forfeiture in the amount of one thousand four hundred dollars ($1,400) to Christian Broadcasting of Yakima (Licensee), licensee of low power television (LPTV) station Ellensburg, Washington (Station). We find that the Licensee willfully violated section 74.788¹ of the Commission's rules by failing to timely file a license to cover application, and willfully and repeatedly violated section 301 of the Act,² by engaging in unauthorized operation of the Station after its construction permit had expired.

II. BACKGROUND

2. On July 14, 2022, the Media Bureau (Bureau) issued a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture (NAL) in the amount of six thousand five hundred dollars ($6,500) to Licensee for these violations.³ The NAL gave the Licensee thirty days to pay the full amount of the proposed forfeiture or file a written statement seeking reduction or cancellation of the proposed forfeiture.⁴

3. In the NAL, we found that the Licensee had failed to timely file a license to cover as required by section 74.788 of the Rules,⁵ and continued Station operations with the permitted facilities after the Station's construction permit expired on July 13, 2021, and did not seek special temporary authority to operate with those facilities after the expiration of the construction permit. Further, as a result of its late filing, we found that Licensee also apparently engaged in unauthorized operation in violation of section 301 of the Act.⁶ Accordingly, we issued the NAL.

4. On August 11, 2022, the Licensee submitted a written response in which it did not dispute that it had violated the rules but requested that we reduce or cancel the proposed forfeiture based on the Licensee's claimed inability to pay it.⁷ The Response included copies of Licensee's federal tax returns for 2019, 2020 and 2021 in support of this request.

III. DISCUSSION

5. The forfeiture amount proposed in this case was assessed in accordance with section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act),⁸ section 1.80 of the rules,⁹ and the Commission's Forfeiture Policy Statement.¹⁰ In assessing forfeitures, section 503(b)(2)(E) of the Act requires that we take into account the nature, circumstances, extent and gravity of the violation and, with respect to the violator, the degree of culpability, any history of prior offenses, ability to pay, and such other matters as justice may require.¹¹

6. As noted in the NAL, the Commission will not consider reducing or canceling a forfeiture in response to claimed inability to pay unless the respondent submits: (1) federal tax returns for the most recent three-year period; (2) financial statements prepared according to generally accepted accounting practices; or (3) some other reliable and objective documentation that accurately reflects the respondent's current financial status.¹² Any claim of inability to pay must specifically identify the basis for the claim by reference to the financial documentation submitted.¹³ In general, a licensee's gross revenues are the best indicator of its ability to pay a forfeiture. We recognize that, in some cases, other financial indicators, such as net losses, may also be relevant.¹⁴ If gross revenues are sufficiently great, however, the mere fact that a business is operating at a loss does not by itself mean that it cannot afford to pay.¹⁵

7. Here, the Licensee has provided us with federal tax return schedules for the years 2019, 2020, and 2021.¹⁶ These returns show gross revenues of $33,172, $23,306, and $27,238, respectively, and that the Station operated with a loss of $1,047 in 2021. The forfeiture in this case ($6,500), would constitute approximately 23.2% percent of Licensee's three-year average gross revenues ($27,905). In considering claims of financial hardship, the range of forfeitures that the Commission has deemed reasonable generally average about five percent of the violator's gross annual income and have not exceeded eight percent thereof,¹⁷ although a forfeiture equal to five percent of gross revenues has been found to be excessive where a licensee operated at a significant loss.¹⁸ Consistent with these cases and based on the facts before us, we are unwilling to cancel the forfeiture altogether. Instead we find that given Licensee's three-year average gross revenues and single-year operating loss, a reduction in the total forfeiture amount to $1,300, approximately five percent of Licensee's three-year average annual gross revenue, is appropriate for the violations involved in this case.¹⁹

¹⁶ The Licensee has also provided us with financial documentation for the years 2019, 2020, and 2021. However, we consider Licensee's tax returns as the most reliable financial information. See Coleman Enterprises, Inc., Order of Forfeiture, 15 FCC Rcd 24385, 24389 (2000) (considering tax returns to be the most reliable financial information provided by licensee, as compared to unaudited cash flow statements and bank summaries).

8. We have considered Licensee's Response and the record of this case in light of the above statutory factors, our rules, and the Forfeiture Policy Statement. We conclude that Licensee willfully²⁰ and repeatedly²¹ violated section 74.788 of the Commission's rules and section 301 of the Communications Act.²² However, for the reasons set forth above, we find that reducing the forfeiture to one thousand four hundred dollars ($1,300) is warranted.

IV. ORDERING CLAUSES

9. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to section 503(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and sections 0.283 and 1.80 of the Commission's rules,²³ that Christian Broadcasting of Yakima SHALL FORFEIT to the United States the sum of one thousand three hundred dollars ($1,300) for willfully and repeatedly violating section 74.788 of the Commission's rules and section 301 of the Communications Act.

The legislative history of section 312(f)(1) of the Act clarifies that this definition of willful applies to Sections 312 and 503(b) of the Act, H.R. REP. No. 97-765, 51 (Conf. Rep.), and the Commission has so interpreted the terms in the Section 503(b) context.
