ORDER

Adopted: April 24, 2024

Released: April 25, 2024

By the Associate Division Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider a complaint alleging that Clear Rate Communications (Clear Rate) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant as required by the Commission's rules.¹ We conclude that Clear Rate's actions violated the Commission's slamming rules, and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (the Act), prohibits the practice of "slamming," the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber's selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.² The Commission's implementing rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.³ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that satisfies our rules; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an appropriately qualified independent third party to verify the order.⁴ The Commission has also adopted rules to limit the liability of subscribers when an unauthorized carrier change occurs, and to require carriers involved in slamming practices to compensate subscribers whose carriers were changed without authorization.⁵

⁴ See id. § 64.1120(c). Section 64.1130 details the requirements for letter of agency form and content for written or electronically signed authorizations. Id. § 64.1130.

⁵ These rules require the unauthorized carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. If the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change. See id. §§ 64.1140, 64.1160. Any charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to the authorized carrier at the rates the subscriber was paying to the authorized carrier at the time of the unauthorized change. Id. Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission's rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150 percent of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50 percent of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier. See id. §§ 64.1140, 64.1170.

3. The Commission's slamming rules prohibit misrepresentations on sales calls to further reduce the incidence of slamming.⁶ Under the rules, upon a finding of material misrepresentation during the sales call, the consumer's authorization to change carriers will be deemed invalid even if the carrier has some evidence of consumer authorization of a carrier switch, e.g., a third-party verification (TPV) recording. Sales misrepresentations may not be cured by a facially valid TPV.⁷ The rule provides that a consumer's credible allegation of misrepresentation shifts the burden of proof to the carrier to provide evidence to rebut the consumer's claim regarding misrepresentation. The Commission made clear that an accurate and complete recording of the sales call may be the carrier's best persuasive evidence to rebut the consumer's claim that a misrepresentation was made on the sales call.⁸

4. We received Complainant's complaint alleging that Complainant's telecommunications service provider had been changed from AT&T to Clear Rate without her authorization.⁹ Complainant explained that she and her mother, who is 92 years old, set up a new account with AT&T in December 2023 and were told they would receive the same services they had with their previous carrier. Complainant stated that her mother "received a call from Clear Rate Communications a few days after transferring her number to AT&T. The person who called led her to believe she was speaking with someone from AT&T. With that said, she erroneously agreed to the services."¹⁰ Complainant stated that a Clear Rate's representative stated to her that "her mother's number will not be released until the past due balance is paid."¹¹ Complainant explained that in her attempts to cancel the account, "I have been lied to and hung up on. My concerns and request for cancellation have been ignored. . . . [M]y mother is 92 years old, and not being able to call family and/or friends for help if needed could be detrimental."¹² Complainant stated that "she wants her mother's telephone number released without being forced to pay for services that never should have been with [Clear Rate] in the first place."¹³

5. Pursuant to our rules, we notified Clear Rate of the complaint, directing the company to address the allegation of misrepresentation and to provide evidence to rebut the claim.¹⁴ Clear Rate responded, stating that they do not disclose any information to individuals who are not the account holder. It did not, however, provide the recording or any other evidence of authorization.¹⁵ The failure of Clear Rate to provide proof of verification is presumed to be clear and convincing evidence of a violation.¹⁶ Clear Rate did not address Complainant's misrepresentation claim and did not provide a recording of the sales call or any other evidence related to the sales call.

⁷ See Protecting Consumers from Unauthorized Carrier Changes and Related Unauthorized Charges, 33 FCC Rcd 5773, 5778-80, paras. 17-19 (2018) (2018 Slamming Order); 47 CFR § 64.1120(a)(1)(i)(A).

¹⁵ See Clear Rate Response to Informal Complaint No. 6961047 (Apr. 15, 2024); see also 47 CFR § 64.1160.

¹⁶ See 47 CFR § 64.1150(d).

6. Based on the evidence in the record, we find Complainant's allegation of a sales call misrepresentation to be credible. We further find that Clear Rate has failed to provide persuasive evidence to rebut Complainant's misrepresentation claim and therefore that Complainant's authorization to change carriers is invalid. As the Commission stated in the 2018 Slamming Order, "[w]hen a consumer's decision to switch carriers is predicated on false information provided in a sales call, that consumer's authorization to switch carriers can no longer be considered binding."¹⁷ We therefore find that Clear Rate's actions resulted in an unauthorized change in Complainant's telecommunications service provider, as defined by the rules, and we discuss Clear Rate's liability below.¹⁸

7. Clear Rate must remove all charges incurred for service provided to Complainant for the first 30 days after the alleged unauthorized change in accordance with the Commission's liability rules.¹⁹ We have determined that Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change occurred and that neither the Complainant's authorized carrier nor Clear Rate may pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.²⁰ Any charges imposed by Clear Rate on the Complainant for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the Complainant to the authorized carrier at the rates the Complainant was paying the authorized carrier at the time of the unauthorized change of their telecommunications service provider.²¹

8. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and sections 0.141, 0.361, and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed against Clear Rate Communications IS GRANTED.

9. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to section 64.1170(d) of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 64.1170(d), Complainant is entitled to absolution for the charges incurred during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change occurred and that Clear Rate Communications may not pursue any collection against Complainant for those charges.

10. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective upon release.
