DOMESTIC SECTION 214 APPLICATION FILED FOR THE TRANSFER OF CONTROL OF OUTFITTER SATELLITE, INC. TO NEXTPLAT CORP.

STREAMLINED PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

WC Docket No. 23-419

Comments Due: February 5, 2024
Reply Comment Due: February 12, 2024

By this Public Notice, the Wireline Competition Bureau seeks comment from interested parties on an application filed by Outfitter Satellite, Inc. (Outfitter Satellite) and NextPlat Corp. (NextPlat, together with Outfitter Satellite, Applicants), pursuant to section 214(a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and sections 63.03-04 of the Commission's rules,¹ requesting approval for the transfer of control of Outfitter Satellite to NextPlat.²

Outfitter Satellite, a Tennessee corporation, provides resold satellite phone service to customers nationwide.³ NextPlat, a Nevada corporation, does not currently provide any domestic telecommunications services nor is it affiliated with any such entity. The following U.S. citizens and trust currently hold a ten percent or greater interest in NextPlat: Charles Matthew Fernandez (27%); Rodney Barreto (18%); and the Frost Gamma Investments Trust (14%).⁴

² Application for Consent to Transfer Control of Outfitter Satellite, Inc. to NextPlat Corp., WC Docket No. 23-419 (filed Dec. 12, 2023) (Application). Applicants also filed an application for the transfer of authorizations associated with international services. On January 19, 2024, Applicants filed a supplement to their domestic section 214 application. Letter from Michael Donahue, counsel to Outfitter Satellite Inc, and Richard Barbara, counsel to NextPlat Corp., to Marlene H. Dortch, Secretary, FCC, WC Docket No. 23-419 (filed Jan. 19, 2024). Any action on this domestic section 214 application is without prejudice to Commission action on other related, pending applications.

³ Applicants state that Outfitter Satellite also provides satellite phones and other satellite communications equipment, such as terminals for broadband Internet access to customers for use in remote locations. Applicants further state that customers may use their services domestically when they are in remote locations in the United States or in the event of a natural disaster that impacts the viability of traditional communications. Customers using Outfitter Satellite's services domestically can place intrastate, interstate, and international calls.

⁴ Applicants state that the trustee for the Frost Gamma Investments Trust is Philip Frost, a U.S. citizen, who therefore indirectly holds a 14% interest in NextPlat.

Pursuant to the terms of the proposed transaction, NexPlat will acquire all the shares of Outfitter Satellite. Applicants request streamlined treatment of the proposed transaction under the Commission's rules and assert that a grant of the application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity. We accept the application for streamlined filing under section 63.03(b)(2)(i) of the Commission's rules.⁵

Domestic Section 214 Application Filed for the Transfer of Control of Outfitter Satellite, Inc. to NextPlat Corp., WC Docket No. 23-419 (filed Dec. 12, 2023).

GENERAL INFORMATION

The transfer of control identified herein has been found, upon initial review, to be acceptable for filing as a streamlined application. The Commission reserves the right to return any transfer application if, upon further examination, it is determined to be defective and not in conformance with the Commission's rules and policies. Pursuant to section 63.03(a) of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 63.03(a), interested parties may file comments on or before February 5, 2024, and reply comments on or before February 12, 2024. Pursuant to section 63.52 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 63.52, commenters must serve a copy of comments on the Applicants no later than the above comment filing date. Unless otherwise notified by the Commission, the Applicants may transfer control on the 31st day after the date of this notice.

Pursuant to section 63.03 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 63.03, parties to this proceeding should file any documents using the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS): <http://apps.fcc.gov/ecfs/>.

In addition, e-mail one copy of each pleading to each of the following:

- 1) Tracey Wilson, Competition Policy Division, Wireline Competition Bureau, tracey.wilson@fcc.gov;
- 2) Gregory Kwan, Competition Policy Division, Wireline Competition Bureau, gregory.kwan@fcc.gov; and

People with Disabilities: We ask that requests for accommodations be made as soon as possible in order to allow the agency to satisfy such requests whenever possible. Send an email to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau at (202) 418-0530.

The proceeding in this Notice shall be treated as a "permit-but-disclose" proceeding in accordance with the Commission's ex parte rules. Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation (unless a different deadline applicable to the Sunshine period applies). Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter's written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page and/or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum. Documents shown or given to Commission staff during ex parte meetings are deemed to be written ex parte presentations and must be filed consistent with rule 1.1206(b), 47 CFR § 1.1206(b). Participants in this proceeding should familiarize themselves with the Commission's ex parte rules.

To allow the Commission to consider fully all substantive issues regarding the application in as timely and efficient a manner as possible, petitioners and commenters should raise all issues in their initial filings. New issues may not be raised in responses or replies.⁶ A party or interested person seeking to raise a new issue after the pleading cycle has closed must show good cause why it was not possible for it to have raised the issue previously. Submissions after the pleading cycle has closed that seek to raise new issues based on new facts or newly discovered facts should be filed within 15 days after such facts are discovered. Absent such a showing of good cause, any issues not timely raised may be disregarded by the Commission.
