Re: Notice of Suspension and Initiation of Debarment Proceeding
File No. EB-IHD-25-00038477

Dear Mr. Collura:

The Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (Commission or FCC) received notice of your conviction for making a false statement to the federal government, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(2), arising out of activities associated with the federal schools and libraries universal service support mechanism (E-Rate program).<sup>1</sup> The crime involved knowingly submitting a false certification to the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) that a contract between the Diocese of Columbus Office of Catholic Schools (Diocese) and the South Central Ohio Computer Association (SCOCA) covered no ineligible services, when the charges under the contract were inflated and included expenses not eligible for E-Rate funding.<sup>2</sup> Consequently, pursuant to 47 CFR § 54.8, this letter constitutes official notice of your suspension from the E-Rate program and all federal universal service support mechanisms.<sup>3</sup> While suspended, you are prohibited from participating in or receiving any benefit associated with all federal universal service support mechanisms, including the E-Rate program. Additionally, in accordance with the Commission's rules, the Bureau is commencing a proceeding to debar you from future participation in all federal universal service support mechanisms for three years.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>1</sup> Any further reference in this letter to "your conviction" refers to your guilty plea and subsequent sentencing in United States v. Kenneth Collura, Case No. 2:19-cr-00146-EAS, Judgment and Sentencing Order (S.D. Ohio, issued Jan. 15, 2020) (Sentencing Order).

<sup>3</sup> 47 CFR § 54.8. On March 26, 2026, new rules were adopted allowing the Commission to take quicker and more comprehensive action to exclude bad actors from participating in Congressionally-mandated funding programs, such as the E-Rate program. See Modernizing Suspension & Debarment Rules, GN Docket No. 19-309, Report & Order, Direct Final Rule, and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, FCC 26-18 (Mar. 27, 2026).

<sup>4</sup> 47 CFR § 54.8; Id. § 0.111 (delegating to the Enforcement Bureau authority to resolve universal service suspension and debarment proceedings). The Commission adopted debarment rules for the E-Rate program in 2003. See

I. Notice of Suspension

The Commission has established procedures to prevent persons who have “defrauded the government or engaged in similar acts through activities associated with or related to the [E-Rate program]” from receiving the benefits associated with that program.<sup>5</sup> The statutory provisions and Commission rules relating to the E-Rate program are designed to ensure E-Rate funds are used for their intended purpose.<sup>6</sup> Schools may receive E-Rate program funding for eligible goods and services by filing application forms, seeking competitive bids, and selecting the most cost-effective vendor.<sup>7</sup> The E-Rate program rules prohibit an E-Rate vendor or anyone associated with an E-Rate vendor from participating in the application process or vendor selection.<sup>8</sup> Solicitations for E-Rate services must be based on fair and open competitive bidding, free from any conflicts of interest.<sup>9</sup>

You pleaded guilty to willfully and knowingly making a materially false statement to the federal government.<sup>10</sup> You negotiated a contract between the Diocese and its service provider, SCOCA, knowing that the fees were inflated and included funding for expenses that were not eligible for E-Rate funding.<sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, you made false statements to the government that you and the Diocese had complied with all rules of the E-Rate program, disclosed all ineligible services that were covered by the contract, and that the contract covered no ineligible services.<sup>12</sup>

In January 2020, the United States District Court for the Southern District of Ohio sentenced you to thirty months of probation.<sup>13</sup> The court also ordered you to pay a $5,000 fine and a $100 special assessment fee.<sup>14</sup>

Pursuant to section 54.8(d) of the Commission's rules,<sup>15</sup> your conviction requires the Bureau to suspend you from: (a) participating in any activities associated with or related to the E-Rate program, including the receipt of funds or discounted services through the E-Rate program, or consulting with, assisting, or advising applicants or service providers regarding the E-Rate program; and (b) participating in any activities associated with or related to all federal universal service support mechanisms.<sup>16</sup> Your suspension becomes effective upon either your receipt of this letter or its publication in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.<sup>17</sup>

In accordance with the Commission's suspension and debarment rules, you may contest this suspension or the scope of this suspension by filing arguments, with any relevant documents, within thirty calendar days of your receipt of this letter or publication of notice of the suspension in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.<sup>18</sup> Such requests, however, will not ordinarily be granted.<sup>19</sup> The Bureau may reverse or limit the scope of a suspension only upon a finding of extraordinary circumstances.<sup>20</sup> The Bureau will decide any request to reverse or modify a suspension within ninety calendar days of its receipt of such request.<sup>21</sup>

II. Initiation of Debarment Proceedings

In addition to requiring your immediate suspension from all federal universal service support mechanisms, including the E-Rate program, your conviction is cause for debarment as defined in section 54.8(c) of the Commission's rules.<sup>22</sup> Therefore, pursuant to section 54.8(b) of the Commission's rules, your conviction requires the Bureau to commence debarment proceedings against you.<sup>23</sup>

As with the suspension process, you may contest the proposed debarment or the scope of the proposed debarment by filing arguments and any relevant documentation within thirty calendar days of receipt of this letter or its publication in the Federal Register, whichever comes first.<sup>24</sup> The Bureau, in the absence of extraordinary circumstances, will notify you of its decision to debar within ninety calendar
