an aggregator of rural local exchange and broadband companies that serve customers under the brand name of Fastwyre.⁶ American Broadband wholly-owns TelAlaska, Incorporated (TelAlaska, Inc.), an Alaska corporation and the parent company of the Fastwyre Alaska Licensees.⁷ Thus, the Fastwyre Alaska Licensees are indirect, wholly-owned subsidiaries of ABC Parent.⁸ The Fastwyre Alaska Licensees provide data, telecommunications, and other services to rural communities in Alaska.⁹ Specifically, TelAlaska Long Distance, Inc., an Alaska corporation, provides competitive local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services in designated areas of Alaska.¹⁰ Interior Telephone Company (Interior Telco) and Mukluk Telephone Company, Inc. (Mukluk Telco) are Alaska corporations and incumbent local exchange carriers (LECs).¹¹ Interior Telco (SAC 613011) and Mukluk Telco (613016) are also designated Eligible Telecommunications Carriers (ETCs) that receive Alaska Plan and Connect American Fund (CAF) Intercarrier Compensation (CAF-ICC) support.¹²

American Broadband also wholly owns HunTel, Inc., the parent company of the Fastwyre Nebraska Licensees.¹³ The Fastwyre Nebraska Licensees are therefore also indirect wholly-owned subsidiaries of ABC Parent.¹⁴ The Fastwyre Nebraska Licensees provide data, telecommunications, and other services to rural communities in Nebraska.¹⁵ Specifically, Arlington Telephone Company, Blair Telephone Company, Eastern Nebraska Telephone Company, and Rock County Telephone Company are designated ETCs and incumbent LECs that receive USF high-cost support in the form of Enhanced Alternative Connect America Model (ACAM) support.¹⁶ HunTel Cablevision, Inc. is a designated ETC and competitive LEC authorized to provide local and interexchange telecommunications services in designated areas of Nebraska.¹⁷

Anacoco is a Delaware limited liability holding company that is equally owned and controlled by Jonathan D. Foxman and Daniel E. Hopkins, both U.S. citizens.¹⁸ According to Applicants, Mssrs. Foxman and Hopkins, through commonly controlled entities, have a history of providing rural communities with access to communications services that include fixed and mobile broadband and voice services.¹⁹ Anacoco and its affiliates do not provide facilities-based or resold telecommunications services in the areas served by the Fastwyre Licensees.²⁰

Pursuant to the terms of both proposed transactions, ABC Parent, ABC Intermediate, and Anacoco entered into a stock purchase agreement under which Anacoco will acquire all of the outstanding equity interests in ABC Intermediate and, therefore, indirect ownership and control of its subsidiaries, including the Fastwyre Licensees.²¹ Accordingly, Applicants state that upon consummation of the transactions, the Fastwyre Licensees will be indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of Anacoco, ABC Intermediate, ABC Acquisition, and American Broadband.²² Applicants state that post-consummation of the transaction, Anacoco will assume control of the Fastwyre Licensees, including all licenses, physical plant, and operations in Alaska and Nebraska.²³ The Fastwyre Licensees, following closing, will be managed by Anacoco, but will continue to be operated, on a day-to-day basis, by a majority of the existing employees.²⁴

Discussion

Applicants assert that a grant of the Application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity.²⁵ Applicants assert that the transfer of control of the Fastwyre Licensees will be transparent to their customers, have no adverse impact on any customers, and will not alter the services they currently receive.²⁶ Applicants explain that the transactions will not result in immediate carrier changes for customers, will not result in the discontinuance, reduction, loss, or impairment of service to customers, and that any future changes to the rates, terms, or conditions of service, if any, will be undertaken pursuant to the applicable federal and state obligations.²⁷ Applicants also state that the transaction does not present any anticompetitive issues because Anacoco and its affiliates do not provide facilities-based or resold telecommunications services in the areas served by the Fastwyre Licensees or in the states of Alaska or Nebraska and therefore will not remove a competitor for telecommunications services.²⁸

Applicants further assert that the transactions will enable the continued provision of high-quality communications services and enhance the Fastwyre Licensees' ability to innovate and provide advanced network services in Alaska and Nebraska.²⁹ Applicants maintain that Anacoco has the necessary managerial and technical experience to provide voice and broadband service.³⁰ Therefore, Applicants assert that upon consummation, Anacoco and the Fastwyre Licensees together will have extensive technical, organizational, regulatory, and management experience in building and operating residential
