DOMESTIC SECTION 214 APPLICATION FILED FOR THE TRANSFER OF CONTROL OF CODECOM, LLC D/B/A OPTIVON

STREAMLINED PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

WC Docket No. 25-345

Comments Due: January 27, 2026

Reply Comments Due: February 3, 2026

By this Public Notice, the Wireline Competition Bureau seeks comment from interested parties on an application¹ filed by The Luis G. Romero Trust dated November 28, 2018 (Trust) and José Jaime Romero (together, Applicants), pursuant to section 214(a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 63.03-04 of the Federal Communication Commission's (Commission) rules,² requesting consent to transfer control of Codecom, LLC d/b/a Optivon (Codecom) from the Trust to José Jaime Romero.

Codecom, a Puerto Rico limited liability company, provides telecommunications services primarily to businesses in Puerto Rico.³

The Trust is a revocable trust created under the laws of the State of Florida.⁴ Luis G. Romero, a U.S. citizen, is the sole grantor and trustee and exercises 100% control over the Trust.⁵ The Trust currently holds 92.577% of the issued and outstanding membership interests of Codecom.⁶

José Jaime Romero, a U.S. citizen, currently holds the remaining 7.423% membership interest in Codecom.⁷ José Jaime Romero currently serves as President of Codecom, as appointed by Luis Romero.⁸

Pursuant to the terms of the proposed transaction, the Trust will sell and transfer its 92.577% of Applicants also filed applications for the transfer of authorizations associated with international services. Any action on the Application is without prejudice to Commission action on other related, pending applications.

membership interests back to Codecom, in total redemption of its membership interests.⁹ With this proposed transfer, Applicants contend that the Trust's membership interests would be retired and José Jaime Romero, by retaining his prior minority membership interest in Codecom, would be the only remaining interest holder in Codecom.¹⁰ As a result, Applicants state that José Jaime Romero will hold 100% of the issued and outstanding membership interests of Codecom, placing him in control of Codecom.¹¹

Applicants assert that a grant of the Application would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity.¹² We accept the Application for streamlined processing under section 63.03(b)(1)(ii) of the Commission's rules.¹³

GENERAL INFORMATION

The transfer of control identified herein has been found, upon initial review, to be acceptable for filing as a streamlined application. The Commission reserves the right to return any transfer application if, upon further examination, it is determined to be defective and not in conformance with the Commission's rules and policies. Interested parties may file comments and reply comments on or before the dates indicated on the first page of this document. Pursuant to section 63.52 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 63.52, commenters must serve a copy of comments on the Applicants no later than the above comment filing date. Unless otherwise notified by the Commission, the Applicants may transfer control on the 31st day after the date of this notice.

Pursuant to section 63.03 of the Commission's rules, 47 CFR § 63.03, interested parties must file comments using the Commission's Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS): <https://www.fcc.gov/ecfs>.

People with Disabilities: To request materials in accessible formats for people with disabilities (braille, large print, electronic files, audio format), send an e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau at 202-418-0530 (voice).

In addition, e-mail one copy of each pleading to each of the following:

- 1) Megan Danner, Competition Policy Division, Wireline Competition Bureau, megan.danner@fcc.gov;
- 2) Fara Mohsenikolour, Office of International Affairs, fara.mohsenikolour@fcc.gov; and
- 3) Jim Bird, Office of General Counsel, jim.bird@fcc.gov.

The proceeding in this Notice shall be treated as a "permit-but-disclose" proceeding in accordance with the Commission's ex parte rules. Persons making ex parte presentations must file a copy of any written presentation or a memorandum summarizing any oral presentation within two business days after the presentation (unless a different deadline applicable to the Sunshine period applies). Persons making oral ex parte presentations are reminded that memoranda summarizing the presentation must (1) list all persons attending or otherwise participating in the meeting at which the ex parte presentation was made, and (2) summarize all data presented and arguments made during the presentation. If the presentation consisted in whole or in part of the presentation of data or arguments already reflected in the presenter's written comments, memoranda or other filings in the proceeding, the presenter may provide citations to such data or arguments in his or her prior comments, memoranda, or other filings (specifying the relevant page and/or paragraph numbers where such data or arguments can be found) in lieu of summarizing them in the memorandum. Documents shown or given to Commission staff during ex parte meetings are deemed to be written ex parte presentations and must be filed consistent with rule 1.1206(b), 47 CFR § 1.1206(b). Participants in this proceeding should familiarize themselves with the Commission's ex parte rules.

To allow the Commission to consider fully all substantive issues regarding the application in as timely and efficient a manner as possible, petitioners and commenters should raise all issues in their initial filings. New issues may not be raised in responses or replies.¹⁴ A party or interested person seeking to raise a new issue after the pleading cycle has closed must show good cause why it was not possible for it to have raised the issue previously. Submissions after the pleading cycle has closed that seek to raise new issues based on new facts or newly discovered facts should be filed within 15 days after such facts are discovered. Absent such a showing of good cause, any issues not timely raised may be disregarded by the Commission.

For further information, please contact Megan Danner, Competition Policy Division, Wireline Competition Bureau, at (202) 418-1151.
