OFFICE OF ENGINEERING AND TECHNOLOGY AND MEDIA BUREAU
ANNOUNCE RELEASE OF VERSION 2.3.1 OF TVStudy

The Office of Engineering and Technology and the Media Bureau announce the release of updated TVStudy software (Version 2.3.1).¹ The TVStudy Version 2.3.1 software installation package, the TVStudy 2.3.1 Installation and Upgrade Guide, and the post-auction template XML file are all available on the TVStudy website at <http://www.fcc.gov/oet/tvstudy>. As with prior updates, a full list of changes from TVStudy Version 2.3 is included in the “Differences Between 2.3.1 and 2.3.0” section of the Change Log in the TVStudy 2.3.1 Installation and Upgrade Guide.

In particular, TVStudy 2.3.1 corrects an issue that caused applications for new low power television stations to be considered incorrectly in TV Interference Check studies. TVStudy 2.3.1 also corrects a number of minor issues throughout the software, and adds a handful of minor features.

For further information regarding the TVStudy software and to submit bug reports, contact Mark Colombo at (202) 418-7611 or Mark.Colombo@fcc.gov.
