The Commission sent Licensee DCIA demand letters demanding payment of these delinquent regulatory fees.¹⁹ When Licensee did not pay its regulatory fee debts, the Commission transferred the debts to the United States Department of Treasury (Treasury) for collection.²⁰ At the Commission's request, the Treasury has returned the FYs 2013, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022, 2023, 2024, and 2025 regulatory fee debts to the Commission for further collection.

The Commission has authority under section 9a(c)(4) of the Act and section 1.1164(f) of the Rules to revoke licenses and authorizations for failure to pay regulatory fees (or related interest or penalties) in a timely fashion. Accordingly, we require Licensee to file with the Media Bureau documented evidence within sixty (60) calendar days of the date of this Order that full payment of all outstanding regulatory fee debt has been made or show cause why the payment is inapplicable or should be waived or deferred.²¹ Licensee is hereby notified that failure to provide such evidence of payment or to show cause within the time specified may result in revocation of Licensee's license for the Station.

6. Under section 9a(c)(4)(C) of the Act and section 1.1164(f) of the Rules,²² an adjudicatory hearing will not be designated unless Licensee presents a substantial and material question of fact. Further, disposition of any adjudicatory hearing will be based upon written evidence only, and Licensee will bear the burden to introduce evidence and to provide proof in any such hearing.²³ Unless the Licensee substantially prevails in the hearing, the Commission may assess the Licensee for the costs of such hearing.²⁴

The Commission interprets this provision narrowly, granting relief only when a requesting party has shown extraordinary circumstances outweighing the public interest in recovering the cost of the Commission's regulatory services.
