Re: File No. EB-SED-26-00041019

Dear Mr. Lee:

The Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC or Commission) is investigating whether eTak Worldwide Corporation (eTak or Company)¹ has directly or indirectly marketed² within the United States any radiofrequency (RF) equipment³ produced in a manner that may be a violation of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (Act), including section 302a(b) of the Act, and parts 1 and 2 of the Commission's rules.⁴ The Federal Government has determined that certain equipment and services pose an unacceptable risk to the national security of the United States or the security and safety of United States persons.⁵ Consequently, on December 22, 2025, the

² For purposes of this LOI, the terms "market," "marketed," or "marketing" shall mean the manufacture, use, sale or lease, or offering for sale or lease, including advertising for sale or lease, or importation, shipment, or distribution for the purpose of selling or leasing or offering for sale or lease. See 47 U.S.C. § 302a(b); 47 CFR § 2.803(a). "Market," "marketed," or "marketing" includes the Company's efforts to sell devices on its own websites, on third-party websites, and to resellers who may sell the products elsewhere.

³ "RF equipment" includes radiofrequency devices satisfying the definition set forth in 47 CFR § 2.801.

Commission's Public Safety and Homeland Security Bureau placed on the FCC Covered List:⁶ 1) UAS and UAS critical components⁷ produced in a foreign country, and 2) all communications and video surveillance equipment and services listed in Section 1709(a)(1) of the FY25 NDAA.⁸

The Bureau is investigating whether RF equipment marketed within the United States by Odyssey Robot LLC (Odyssey) and purportedly assembled by the Company complies with recently enacted regulations. Accordingly, we direct the Company, pursuant to sections 4(i), 4(j), and 403 of the Act,⁹ to provide the information and documents requested herein within fourteen (14) calendar days after the date of this letter of inquiry (LOI).

This LOI constitutes an order of the Commission to produce the documents and information requested herein.¹⁰ To knowingly and willfully make any false statement or conceal any material fact in reply to this inquiry is punishable by fine or imprisonment.¹¹ Failure to provide a timely and complete response to this LOI constitutes a violation of the Act and the Commission's rules.¹²

The Attachment to this letter includes the inquiries, filing requirements, and instructions for the Company's response. Requests for confidential treatment or claims of attorney-client privilege or attorney work product must strictly meet the requirements stated in the attached instructions.

Meet and Confer: If the Company intends to raise any issues regarding the scope, cost, burden, or response time for this LOI, or if it has questions regarding how to assert any claims of protected status (e.g., privilege, work-product, etc.) or the production of electronically stored information, it must notify Bureau personnel within two (2) business days of receipt of this LOI to schedule a telephonic meeting. At the meeting, the Company must make available personnel knowledgeable about the Company's information or records management systems, systems for electronically-stored information, custodians likely to have information responsive to this LOI, and any other issues relevant to compliance with this LOI.

If the Bureau determines that the Company has violated or has continued to act in violation of the Act and/or the Commission's rules, the continued noncompliant conduct after the receipt of this LOI may subject the Company to additional penalties.

If you have any questions about this matter, please contact me at EB-SED-Response@fcc.gov.

Inquiries: Information and Documents to be Provided

The Company must provide the following information and documents as requested below in accordance with the Filing Requirements and Instructions below.

Unless otherwise indicated, the time period covered by these inquiries is December 1, 2025, to the present (Inquiry Period).

Requests for Information

1. Describe any past or present business relationship with Odyssey, including all documentation related to the assembly of any Odyssey devices.
2. Provide a detailed description of any past, current, or planned device assembly activities conducted with the United States.
3. Provide a detailed description of any past, current, or planned expansion of eTak's service offerings or its Texas facilities that relates to providing device assembly services.
4. Identify any payments, invoices, or financial commitments between eTak and Odyssey related to device assembly services.

Request for Documents¹³

5. Provide copies of all agreements, communications, or correspondence between Odyssey and eTak. For each Document, provide the Document's date, author, addressee, type of document, a brief description of the subject matter, its current or last known location, and its custodian.

Filing Requirements

Affidavit Requirement. We direct the Company to support its responses with an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury, signed and dated by an authorized officer of the Company with personal knowledge of the representations provided in the Company's response. The affidavit or declaration must verify the truth and accuracy of the information therein, state that all the information requested by this letter that is in the Company's possession, custody, control, or knowledge has been produced, and state that any and all documents provided in its responses are true and accurate copies of the original documents. In addition to such general affidavit or declaration of the authorized officer of the Company described above, if such officer (or any other affiant or declarant) is relying on the personal knowledge of any other individual rather than his or her own knowledge, and if multiple Company employees contribute to the response, the Company shall provide separate affidavits or declarations of each such individual with personal knowledge that identify clearly to which responses the affiant or declarant with such personal knowledge is attesting. All such declarations provided must comply with section 1.16 of the Commission's rules,¹⁴ and be substantially in the form set forth therein. Failure to support your responses with a sworn affidavit could subject you to forfeiture.¹⁵

Delivery Requirements. The Company shall send its response via e-mail to EB-SED-Response@fcc.gov. The electronic copy shall be produced in a format that allows the Commission to access and use it, together with instructions and all other materials necessary to use or interpret the data, including record layouts, data dictionaries, and a description of the data's source. Due to network file size restrictions, the Company should partition the response into separate e-mails of less than 10 MB, including attachments. The Company should seek guidance in sufficient advance of the response deadline if it requires an alternative method of delivery.

Instructions

Request for Confidential Treatment. In addition to providing the requested information and documents, any request for confidentiality of certain information or documents must strictly comply with the requirements of 47 CFR § 0.459, including a statement of the reasons for withholding the materials from inspection. The request must include a schedule of the information or documents for which confidentiality is requested that states, individually as to each such item, the information required by section 0.459(b) of the Commission's rules including, but not limited to, identifying the specific information for which confidential treatment is sought; explaining the degree to which the information is commercial or financial, or contains a trade secret or is privileged; and explaining how disclosure of the information could result in substantial competitive harm.¹⁶ Accordingly, a "blanket" request for confidentiality or a casual request, including simply stamping pages "confidential," will not be considered a proper request for confidentiality, and those materials will not be treated as confidential.¹⁷

Claims of Privilege. If the Company withholds any information or documents under claim of privilege, it shall submit, together with any claim of privilege, a schedule of the items withheld that states, individually as to each such item: the numbered Inquiry to which each item responds and the type, title, specific subject matter and date of the item; the names, addresses, positions, and organizations of all authors and recipients of the item; and the specific grounds for claiming that the item is privileged.

Format of Responses. The response must be organized in the same manner as the questions asked, i.e., the response to Inquiry 1 should be labeled as responsive to Inquiry 1.

Method of Producing Documents. The Company shall submit each requested Document in its entirety, even if only a portion of that document is responsive to an inquiry made herein, including all appendices, tables, or other attachments, and all other documents referred to in the document or attachments. The Company shall not edit, cut, expunge, or otherwise take any action to modify any document submitted in response to this LOI. In addition to any document the Company submits in response to any inquiry, the Company shall also submit all written materials necessary to understand any document responsive to these inquiries. Accordingly, original Documents that are not in English must be accompanied by an English-language translation.

Identification of Documents. For each document or statement submitted in response to the inquiries stated in the cover letter, indicate, by number, to which inquiry it is responsive and identify the Persons from whose files the document was retrieved. If any document is not dated, state the date on which it was prepared. If any document does not identify its authors or recipients, state, if known, the names of the authors or recipients. The Company must identify with reasonable specificity all documents provided in response to these inquiries.

The Company shall identify all documents provided in response to these inquiries in accordance with this paragraph. The Company shall include a reference label on each document that identifies each document in sequential and consecutive numerical order and "Bates" stamp all documents (e.g., Company 01-000001, where "Company" is the responding entity, "01" signifying that the document is response to Question 1 of this LOI, and "000001" indicating that the document is the first page in a consecutively numbered range potentially reaching one hundred thousand). Elements such as these should be separated by dashes, as indicated. For each document submitted in response to this LOI, the Company shall provide an index indicating: the title of the document; the date of the document; the custodian from whose files the document was retrieved; the author and recipient of the document; and the corresponding reference label number assigned to the document. If any document is not dated, the Company shall state the date on which it was prepared. If any document does not identify its authors or recipients, state, if known, the names of the authors or recipients.

Documents Already Provided. If a document responsive to any inquiry made herein has already been provided to the Bureau during this or any other investigation, identify each such document, when and how it was produced to the Bureau, and specify the Bates-number range for the document.

Documents No Longer Available. If a document responsive to any Inquiry made herein existed but is no longer available, or if the Company is unable for any reason to produce a document responsive to any Inquiry, identify each such document by author, recipient, date, title, and specific subject matter, and explain fully why the document is no longer available or why the Company is otherwise unable to produce it.

Retention of Original Documents. With respect only to documents responsive to the specific Inquiries made herein and any other documents relevant to those Inquiries, the Company is directed to retain the originals of those documents for twenty-four months from the date of this letter unless (a) the Company is directed or informed by the Bureau in writing to retain such documents for some shorter or longer period of time, or (b) the Bureau or the Commission releases an item on the subject of this investigation, including, but not limited to, a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture or an order disposing of the issues in the investigation, in which case, the Company must retain all such documents until the matter has been finally concluded by payment of any monetary penalty, satisfaction of all conditions, expiration of all possible appeals, conclusion of any enforcement action brought by the United States Department of Justice, or execution and implementation of a final settlement with the Commission or the Bureau.

Continuing Nature of Inquiries. The specific Inquiries made herein are continuing in nature. The Company is required to produce in the future any and all documents and information that are responsive to the Inquiries made herein but not initially produced at the time, date, and place specified herein. In this regard, the Company must supplement its responses (a) if the Company learns that, in some material respect, the documents and information initially disclosed were incomplete or incorrect or (b) if additional responsive documents or information are acquired by or become known to the Company after the initial production. The requirement to update the record will continue for twenty-four months from the date of this letter unless (a) the Company is directed or informed by the Bureau in writing that the Company's obligation to update the record will continue for some shorter or longer period of time, or (b) the Bureau or the Commission releases an item on the subject of this investigation, including, but not limited to, a Notice of Apparent Liability for Forfeiture or an order disposing of the issues in the investigation, in which case the obligation to update the record will continue until the matter has been finally concluded by payment of any such monetary penalty, satisfaction of all conditions, expiration of all possible appeals, conclusion of any enforcement action brought by the United States Department of Justice, or execution and implementation of a final settlement with the Commission or the Bureau.

Construction. The terms “any” and “all,” “and” and “or,” and “each” and “every” shall be construed inclusively to bring within the scope of the requests for information and documents all information and documents that might otherwise arguably be construed as outside the scope of the requests. Likewise, the singular of any word or defined term shall include the plural and the plural of any such word or defined term shall include the singular. The words “relating to” or “relate to” shall be construed to mean, whether directly or indirectly, in whole or in part constituting, containing, concerning, discussing, describing, analyzing, identifying, supporting, qualifying, confirming, contradicting, or stating.
