ORDER

Adopted: August 27, 2026

Released: August 27, 2026

By the Chief, Enforcement Bureau:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. By this Order, the Enforcement Bureau (Bureau) of the Federal Communications Commission (Commission or FCC) directs the companies named in Appendix A (each, a Company; collectively, the Companies) to cure their deficient Robocall Mitigation Database (RMD) certifications or explain why the Bureau should not remove each Company's certification from the RMD. The Companies' RMD filings are deficient because each of the Companies failed to respond to multiple traceback requests from the industry traceback consortium, which is contrary to their certifications in the RMD.² Removal of a Company's certification from the RMD would require all intermediate providers and voice service providers³ to cease accepting all calls directly from the Company, except those to 911 or from public safety answering points and government emergency numbers.⁴

¹ The investigation began under EB-TCD-25-00038569 and was subsequently assigned File No. EB-TCD-26-00041364. Any future correspondence with the Commission concerning this matter should reflect the new case number.

² See 47 CFR § 64.6305(d)(2)(iii), (e)(2)(iii), (f)(2)(iii) (requiring voice service providers, gateway providers, and non-gateway providers to certify that they commit to respond within 24 hours to all traceback requests from the Commission, law enforcement, and the industry traceback consortium); see also Call Authentication Trust Anchor, WC Docket No. 17-97, Sixth Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 38 FCC Rcd 2573, 2590, para. 31 (2023) (Sixth Caller ID Authentication Order).

³ For purposes of this order, we use the term "voice service provider" consistent with the definition of "voice service" in section 64.6300 of our rules. See 47 CFR § 64.6300(o). As such, the term "voice service provider" excludes intermediate providers (i.e., gateway providers and non-gateway intermediate providers), as those terms are defined in section 64.6300. See id. § 64.6300(d), (g), (i).

⁴ See 47 CFR § 64.6305(g).

Each Company must provide its response to this Order to the Bureau no later than 14 days after the Order is released.⁵

II. BACKGROUND

2. The Commission adopted rules to establish the RMD in 2020 to promote transparency and effective robocall mitigation.⁶ In addition to establishing the RMD and requiring voice service providers to file certifications in the RMD once it opened, the Second Caller ID Authentication Order adopted a requirement that voice service providers that have not fully implemented the STIR/SHAKEN caller ID authentication framework on their entire network implement an appropriate robocall mitigation program.⁷ The Order required that any such mitigation program include reasonable steps to avoid originating traffic and a commitment to respond fully and in a timely manner to all traceback requests from the Commission, law enforcement, and the industry traceback consortium.⁸ In addition, the Commission required voice service providers, not later than June 30, 2021 to certify in the RMD that their traffic was signed with STIR/SHAKEN or subject to a robocall mitigation program.⁹ Specifically, voice service providers were required to certify that they had: (i) fully implemented STIR/SHAKEN across their entire network, (ii) partially implemented STIR/SHAKEN on their network and originating calls not signed with STIR/SHAKEN were subject to a robocall mitigation program, or (iii) not implemented STIR/SHAKEN on any portion of their network and all of their originating calls were subject to a robocall mitigation program.¹⁰ Voice service providers certifying to partial or no STIR/SHAKEN implementation were thus required to certify their “commitment to respond fully and in a timely manner to all traceback requests.”¹¹

3. On March 16, 2023, the Commission adopted amendments to section 64.6305 of its rules in the Sixth Caller ID Authentication Order that enhanced the information requirements for RMD certifications, including by expanding the obligation to implement an appropriate robocall mitigation program (and to submit a robocall mitigation plan describing that program as part of its RMD certification) to all new and existing filers.¹² On May 18, 2023, the Commission adopted additional amendments to section 64.6305 in the Seventh Call Blocking Order that required all providers to include a commitment to respond fully to traceback requests within 24 hours in their RMD certification.¹³ Both of

¹¹ See id. § 64.6305(b)(2)(iii) (2021). Two of the Companies—Advantage Investors and sunstreamnetwork—certified in 2023 that they would respond to traceback requests because they certified to partial STIR/SHAKEN implementation (Advantage) or no STIR/SHAKEN implementation (sunstreamnetwork). Although Advantage later updated its certification to reflect complete STIR/SHAKEN implementation, its July 2023 certification to partial STIR/SHAKEN implementation was operative when it received the traceback requests listed in Appendix B.

these rule amendments took effect on February 26, 2024, and required all existing filers to update their RMD certifications to provide the newly-required information and updated robocall mitigation plans by that same date.¹⁴

4. Under the amended rule, voice service providers, gateway providers, and non-gateway intermediate providers¹⁵ must submit several pieces of information in their RMD filings and certify to their compliance with certain requirements under penalty of perjury. As relevant here, section 64.6305 requires voice service providers, gateway providers, and non-gateway intermediate providers to certify, under penalty of perjury, that all calls that they originate, carry, or process are subject to a robocall mitigation program, and such programs must include “a commitment to respond within 24 hours to all traceback requests from the Commission, law enforcement, and the industry traceback consortium.”¹⁶ Accordingly, under the rules in effect since February 26, 2024, every provider that files a certification in the RMD expressly certifies that “all of the calls . . . on its network are subject to a robocall mitigation program consistent with 47 CFR § 64.6305[], which shall include a commitment to respond fully and within 24 hours to all traceback requests.”¹⁷ Section 64.6305 also requires voice service providers, gateway providers, and non-gateway intermediate providers to include a statement of this commitment in their certification.¹⁸

5. Each of the Companies certified to its commitment to respond to all traceback requests in the RMD.¹⁹ However, each of Companies has not responded to multiple traceback requests since it made

6. The Bureau may remove a certification from the RMD that is deficient.²¹ To do so, the Bureau first contacts the provider, notifying it that its certification is deficient, explaining the nature of the deficiency, and giving the provider an opportunity to cure the deficiency.²² If the provider fails to cure the deficiency, the Bureau will release an order finding that a provider's certification is deficient based on the available evidence and direct the provider to, within 14 days, cure the deficiency in its certification and notify the Bureau that the deficiency has been cured, or explain why the Bureau should not remove the Company's certification from the RMD.²³ If the provider fails to cure the deficiency or provide a sufficient explanation why its certification is not deficient within that 14-day period, the Bureau will release an order removing the provider's certification from the RMD.²⁴

the Companies that their certifications were deficient because each Company “has not responded to at least one traceback request from the ITG” and instructed them to “cure the deficiency by responding fully to each traceback request issued by the ITG.”²⁶

III. DISCUSSION

A. The Companies’ Certifications Are Deficient Because Each Company Failed to Respond to Multiple Traceback Requests.

8. Each of the Companies certified to its commitment to respond to all traceback requests. Despite this, each of the Companies failed to respond to the multiple traceback requests identified in Appendix B. The Bureau notified each of the Companies of this deficiency and provided an opportunity to cure the deficiency by responding fully to each traceback request.²⁷ None of the Companies has cured its deficiency. Accordingly, the Bureau finds that each of the Companies’ certifications is deficient.

B. Each Company Must Cure its Deficiency to Avoid Removal from the RMD and Mandatory Call Blocking pursuant to Section 64.6305(g).

9. The Bureau may remove a deficient certification from the RMD after providing sufficient notice and opportunity to cure.²⁸ The Notification informed each Company that its certification was deficient, and granted it 14 days from the date of the Notification to cure the deficiency by responding fully to past traceback requests and thereafter responding to any future traceback requests within 24 hours as required by section 64.1200(n)(1) of the Commission’s rules and the Company’s certification in the RMD.²⁹

10. This Order affords each Company a final opportunity to cure its RMD filing deficiency. Each of the Companies may cure its deficiency by responding fully to each traceback request identified in Appendix B that was issued by the ITG to the Company (as well as to all future traceback requests), thereby demonstrating that its commitment to respond to all traceback requests in its RMD certification is

11. Each Company shall file its response with the Bureau within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of this Order.³² Failure to cure the deficiency or provide a sufficient explanation why the Company's certification is not deficient will result in its removal.³³ Removal of a Company's certification from the RMD will require all intermediate providers and voice service providers to cease accepting calls directly from that Company.³⁴ Furthermore, each Company shall not be permitted to refile unless both the Bureau and WCB consent.
