CABLE SERVICES ACTION

October 2, 1996

Mailing Address for FCC FORM 329

On April 9, 1996, the Commission released an Order and Notice of Proposed Rulemaking: Implementation of Cable Act Reform Provisions of the Telecommunications Act of 1996, CS Docket No. 96-85, FCC 96-154 ("Cable Act Reform"). Among other things, the Cable Act Reform Order modified the process used to file rate complaints with the Commission challenging rate increases on a cable operator's cable programming service tier ("CPST").

CPST complaints must be filed by local franchising authorities, in accordance with the Commission's rules, via FCC Form 329. Local franchising authorities should file FCC Form 329 with the Commission at the following address:

Federal Communications Commission
Cable Services Bureau
Attention: FCC Form 329 Cable Programming Service Rate Complaint
1919 M Street, NW
Washington, DC 20554

Photocopies of FCC Form 329 contained in the Cable Act Reform rulemaking may continue to be filed and mailed to the address noted above. Copies of FCC Form 329 are also available from the Commission's duplicating contractor, International Transcription Service ("ITS") at (202) 857-3800 and through the Commission's Fax on Demand System. To obtain faxed copies, call (202) 418-0177 from the handset on your fax machine and enter the document retrieval number (000329) when prompted by the system. Assistance with the Fax on Demand System may be obtained by calling (202) 418-0217.
