

Before the Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C. 20554

In the Matter of

CAI WIRELESS SYSTEMS, INC. and
CONNECTICUT CHOICE TELEVISION, INC.

v.

CABLEVISION SYSTEMS, INC. and
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN
NETWORK, INC.

Program Access Complaint pursuant to
47 C.F.R. §76.1003

ORDER

Adopted: March 4, 1996;

Released: March 12, 1996

By the Chief, Cable Services Bureau:

1. On November 22, 1995, CAI Wireless Systems, Inc. and Connecticut Choice Television, Inc. (jointly "Complainants") filed a program access complaint against Cablevision Systems, Inc. and Madison Square Garden Network, Inc. (jointly "Defendants"). On February 1, 1996, Complainants filed to withdraw their program access complaint.

2. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to Section 0.321 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §0.321, that the program access complaint filed by Complainants IS DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

Meredith J. Jones
Chief, Cable Services Bureau