Pacific Bell and Southwestern Bell Telephone Amend Petitions for Waiver of Part 69 to Establish a New Switched Access Service and Related Rate Elements for Long-Term Number Portability

Pleading Cycle Established

CCB/CPD 97-26, 97-32

COMMENTS: December 22, 1997

REPLY COMMENTS: December 30, 1997

On December 12, 1997, Southwestern Bell Telephone (SWBT) and Pacific Bell filed amended waiver petitions to establish new switched access services and related rate elements for long-term number portability.<sup>1</sup> The amended petitions seek to withdraw from consideration the carriers' proposed default and prearranged number portability query service rate elements as set forth in their original petitions, but to preserve their original petitions to the extent they seek to establish the Basic Service Provider Number Portability (SPNP) Service Charge for end users and the SPNP Database Query Service rate elements service charge for carriers.<sup>2</sup> The carriers also filed December 12, 1997, new waiver petitions to introduce prearranged and default query service and related rate elements.<sup>3</sup>

Interested parties may file comments on the amended waiver petitions no later than December 22, 1997. Reply comments must be filed no later than December 30, 1997. When filing comments and reply
