

Federal Communications Commission

---

Before the
Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C. 20554

In the Matter of )
)
C. F. Communications Corp., et al., )
Complainants ) File Nos. E-93-46, E-93-47, E-93-48, E-) 93-49
v. )
)
)
Century Telephone of Wisconsin, Inc., et al., ) Defendants )

ERRATUM

Adopted: April 27, 2000

Released: April 28, 2000

By the Chief, Market Disputes Resolution Division, Enforcement Bureau:

1. On April 13, 2000, the Commission released an order granting a number of formal complaints, which concerned the assessment of end user carrier line charges on independent payphone providers by certain local exchange carriers.<sup>1</sup> The complaints listed in the caption above were inadvertently omitted from the April 13 Order.

---

<sup>1</sup> C. F. Communications Corp., et al. v. Century Telephone of Wisconsin, Inc. et al., FCC 00-133, File Nos. E-89-170, et al. (rel. April 13, 2000) (April 13 Order).

Federal Communications Commission

---

2. ACCORDINGLY, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to Sections 4(i), 4(j), 201(b), and 208 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 154(i), 154(j), 201(b), and 208 and the authority delegated in sections 0.111 and 0.311 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.111 and 0.311, that the following cases shall be added to the caption of the April 13 Order and shall be covered by the determinations therein.

Federal Communications Commission

Glenn T. Reynolds
Chief, Market Disputes Resolution Division
Enforcement Bureau