BARBARA J. DOUGLAS NAMED ASSOCIATE CHIEF FOR PROGRAM COORDINATION AND MANAGEMENT IN CONSUMER INFORMATION BUREAU

Washington, DC -- Barbara J. Douglas has been named Associate Chief for Program Coordination and Management in the Consumer Information Bureau (CIB). She will serve as Chief-of-Staff to the Bureau Chief.

Douglas joins the CIB from her position as vice president with America's Promise - The Alliance for Youth, a national not-for-profit organization. At America's Promise, she developed and managed relationships and supervised outreach efforts with key corporate, philanthropic, not-for-profit and faith-based organizations. Douglas also served as a project director with the National Center for Neighborhood Enterprise, a nonprofit organization dedicated to helping people in low-income communities become self-sufficient through public policy, leadership training and economic development initiatives.

K. Dane Snowden, Chief of CIB, said, "I am delighted to have Barbara join the bureau. She brings a wide range of legal and non-legal knowledge and experience, with an emphasis on customer relations, outreach to targeted populations and groups, and a dedication to excellence, all of which is critical to our work in the bureau. She will definitely 'hit the ground running' at the Commission."

Prior to her service in the not-for-profit sector, Douglas was an associate with the law firm of Patton, Boggs & Blow in Washington, DC, and Baltimore, where she practiced civil litigation and administrative law. She also served as a court law clerk on the District of Columbia Court of Appeals.

She is a graduate of Penn State University and Georgetown University Law Center.
