ERRATUM

Released: December 11, 2001

By the Accounting Policy Division, Common Carrier Bureau:

1. On December 4, 2001, the Accounting Policy Division released an order concerning the application filed by King and Queen County Public Schools (King and Queen), King and Queen Courthouse, Virginia, seeking review of a decision issued by the Schools and Libraries Division (SLD) of the Universal Service Administrative Company.¹ King and Queen sought review of SLD's decision to return without consideration King and Queen's Funding Year 3 application for discounted services under the schools and libraries universal service support mechanism because it omitted certain information required under SLD's minimum processing standards. This erratum corrects the following errors in the released text:

The first sentence of Paragraph 5 of the released text should read as follows: "Upon review of the record in the Request for Review, we conclude that King and Queen's application does not meet the standards articulated in Naperville."

¹ Letter from Lloyd A. Hamlin, King and Queen County Public Schools, to Federal Communications Commission, filed July 12, 2000 (Request for Review).

Federal Communications Commission

Paragraph 6 of the released text should read as follows: “Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to authority delegated under sections 0.91, 0.291, and 54.722(a) of the Commission’s rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.91, 0.291, and 54.722(a), that the Request for Review filed by King and Queen County Public Schools, King and Queen Courthouse, Virginia, on July 12, 2000 IS DENIED.”
