FCC COMMISSIONER COPPS DEPLORES OUTRAGEOUS SUPER BOWL STUNT

Washington, DC – Commissioner Michael J. Copps today issued the following statement:

“Hundreds of Americans have already registered their displeasure at the incident on the Super Bowl halftime show. I’m not surprised. I’ll bet there are millions like me who wonder why parents wanting to watch an all-American sports show with their children have to worry about what’s coming on their screen next. I urge the Commission to address these complaints promptly. But one thing is clear – nothing this Commission has done so far has accomplished anything to slow down Big Media’s race to the bottom.”
