COMMISSIONER JONATHAN S. ADELSTEIN ANNOUNCES INTERIM STAFF APPOINTMENT

Washington, DC – FCC Commissioner Jonathan S. Adelstein announced today that Eric Bash has been detailed to his staff as an Interim Legal Advisor working on media issues pending the selection of a permanent advisor. Bash is currently Assistant Chief in the Enforcement Bureau, Investigations & Hearings Division. He previously served as Special Counsel to the Commission's Localism Task Force, and as Attorney Advisor in the Media Bureau, Policy Division, and in the former Mass Media Bureau, Policy & Rules Division. He also has worked in the Common Carrier (now Wireline Competition) and Wireless Telecommunications Bureaus. Before joining the Commission in 1996, Eric worked for the Federal Trade Commission, representing the agency in consumer protection litigation in the federal courts. Eric received his J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania, and his A.B. from Duke University.
