QUARTERLY REPORT ON INFORMAL CONSUMER INQUIRIES AND COMPLAINTS RELEASED

Washington, DC – The Commission has released its report on the inquiries and complaints processed by the Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau (CGB) during the first quarter of calendar year 2004.

Wireless complaints increased from 8,512 last quarter to 8,830 this quarter. A rise in the number of Billing and Rate related complaints accounted for the modest increase as Number Portability complaints, for which tracking commenced in late November 2003, and Service Quality complaints declined. Wireline complaints decreased from 20,423 to 17,680 with declines in all the top categories except Slamming and Service Quality.

Beginning with the fourth quarter 2003 report, the Bureau reported indecency and obscenity complaints received by the Commissioners' Offices and through the agency's fccinfo.gov e-mail address. This change in method largely accounted for a sizeable increase in Radio and Television Broadcasting complaints reported for the fourth quarter 2003. A rise in the number of Indecency complaints once again spearheaded an increase as the number of Radio and Television Broadcasting complaints rose from 146,403 to 693,080. Meanwhile, Cable complaints continued downward, decreasing from 185 to 175.

Wireless inquiries decreased from 16,895 to 14,094 due largely to a significant drop in the number of Billing and Rate related inquiries. Wireline inquiries, on the other hand, rose from 49,171 to 54,551 buoyed by an increase in Slamming and Cramming inquiries. Radio and Television Broadcasting inquiries increased from 6,652 to 9,017, continuing a trend recorded in the fourth quarter 2003. The biggest increase was in the Programming and Content category. Cable inquiries also increased sharply from 3,972 during the fourth quarter 2003 to 8,581 in the first quarter 2004, with programming issues spearheading the increase.

The Commission receives many inquiries and complaints that do not involve violations of the Communications Act, or a rule or order of the Commission. The existence of a complaint does not necessarily indicate wrongdoing by the company or companies at issue.
