COMMISSIONER ABERNATHY BIDS FAREWELL TO STACY FULLER

Washington, DC — Commissioner Kathleen Q. Abernathy announced today that Stacy R. Fuller, legal advisor for media issues, will soon depart the Commission to pursue an opportunity in the private sector. Abernathy stated:

“Stacy Fuller has done an exemplary job as my legal advisor, and I am very sad to see her depart. But I have encouraged my staff to pursue promising career opportunities when they arise, so I am excited that Stacy will be taking on a new challenge in the private sector.

Stacy has advised me on a broad range of issues involving the FCC’s regulation of broadcast, cable, and DBS. Her work was consistently first rate; from her legal analysis to her policy judgment, I have always been able to depend on Stacy. Her colleagues in my office and throughout the agency — indeed, throughout the industry — can attest to her intelligence, sound judgment, and willingness to tackle complex legal and policy issues. In short, Stacy has been a model advisor, and she will be sorely missed.”
