

Adelphia/Comcast/Time Warner License Transfer Review
Conditioned Approval Fact Sheet
July 13, 2006

Summary of Conditions (each lasting six years)

Affiliated Regional Sports Networks:

- A Regional Sports Network is defined as any non-broadcast video programming service that (1) provides live or same-day distribution of sporting events within a limited geographic region of a sports team that is a member team of Major League Baseball, the National Basketball Association, the National Football League, the National Hockey League, NASCAR, NCAA Division I Football, or NCAA Division I Basketball, and (2) in any year, carries a minimum of either 100 hours of programming that meets the criteria of subheading 1 or 10% of the regular season games of at least one sports team that meets the criteria of subheading 1.
- Neither Comcast nor Time Warner may offer an affiliated Regional Sport Network on an exclusive basis to any MVPD.
- Neither Comcast nor Time Warner may unduly or improperly influence (i) the decision of any affiliated Regional Sports Network to sell programming to an unaffiliated MVPD; or (ii) the prices, terms, and conditions of sale of programming by a affiliated Regional Sport Network to an unaffiliated MVPD.
- If an MVPD and an affiliated Regional Sports Network cannot reach an agreement on the terms and conditions of carriage, the MVPD may elect commercial arbitration of the dispute.
- The above conditions apply regardless of the means of delivery. Comcast SportsNet Philadelphia, however, is not subject to the conditions, except to the extent that the service is already being carried by MVPDs other than Comcast.

Independent Programming:

- If an unaffiliated Regional Sports Network is unable to reach a carriage agreement with Comcast or Time Warner, it may elect commercial arbitration of the dispute.
- If an unaffiliated programming network is unable to reach an agreement pursuant to the Commission's commercial leased access rules with Comcast or Time Warner, it may elect commercial arbitration of the dispute, where the arbitrator would be directed to resolve the dispute using the rate formula specified in the Commission's rules.
