FY 2006 Regulatory Fees Due No Later Than September 19, 2006

The Federal Communications Commission announced today that licensees who are required to pay annual regulatory fees must make their FY 2006 payments no later than September 19, 2006. The Commission's official fee collection window will open on September 6, 2006, but payments may be sent prior to that date. All regulatory fee payments must be received at the Commission's Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania address by 11:59 PM on September 19 to avoid being charged a 25 percent late-payment penalty. All payments also must include a FCC Registration Number (FRN) to be processed.

In recent weeks, the Commission has mailed assessment notices, and in some cases, bills to licensees. Notices to other groups of licensees will continue to be mailed in the month of August 2006. Licensees who are not slated to receive assessment notices or bills are encouraged to visit our Internet web site at <http://www.fcc.gov/fees/regfees.html> to gather specific information regarding payment of FY 2006 regulatory fees.

For additional information on regulatory fees, please contact the FCC Financial Operations Help Desk at (877) 480-3201, Option 4.
