WHAT YOU OWE – INTERSTATE TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE PROVIDERS (ITSP) FOR FY 2006

This Fact Sheet provides information for interstate telecommunications service providers (ITSPs) to help them prepare and pay their ITSP regulatory fees. Telecommunications providers that are subject to the ITSP fee typically identify themselves on FCC Form 499-A filings using one or more of the following categories:¹

All Distance -- provides fixed local exchange services and interstate long distance services to end users for a flat rate (may also include intrastate toll).

CAP/CLEC (Competitive Access Provider/Competitive Local Exchange Carrier) -- competes with incumbent local exchange carriers (LECs) to provide local exchange services, or telecommunications services that link customers with interexchange facilities, local exchange networks, or other customers, other than coaxial cable providers.

Coaxial Cable -- uses coaxial cable (cable TV) facilities to provide local exchange services or telecommunications services that link customers with interexchange facilities, local exchange networks, or other customers.

Incumbent LEC -- provides local exchange services. An incumbent LEC generally is a carrier that was at one time franchised as a monopoly service provider. See 47 U.S.C. §251(h).

Interexchange Carrier (IXC) -- provides long distance telecommunications services substantially through switches or circuits that it owns or leases.

Local Reseller -- provides local exchange or fixed telecommunications services by reselling services of other carriers.

Operator Service Provider (OSP) -- serves customers needing the assistance of an operator to complete calls, or needing alternate billing arrangements such as collect calling.

¹ If you timely filed an FCC 499-A (OMB Control No. 3060-0855), in 2006, you will receive this Factsheet as part of a package that includes a pre-completed FCC Form 159-W that also includes Form 159 information. If the pre-completed information is correct, complete the form and use it to pay your ITSP regulatory fee. If the information is incorrect, you may enter corrections on the pre-completed form rather than completing one of the enclosed blank forms.

Payphone Service Provider -- provides customers access to telephone networks through payphone equipment, special teleconference rooms, etc. Payphone service providers also are referred to as payphone aggregators.

Prepaid Card -- provides prepaid calling card services by selling prepaid calling cards to the public or to retailers. Prepaid card providers typically resell the toll service of other carriers and determine the price of the service by setting the price of the card and controlling the number of minutes that can be used by the card.

Private Service Provider -- offers telecommunications to others for a fee on a non-common carrier basis. This would include a company that offers excess capacity on a private system that it uses primarily for internal purposes. This category does not include Specialized Mobile Radio operators.

Shared-Tenant Service Provider /Building LEC -- manages or owns a multi-tenant location that provides telecommunications services or facilities to the tenants for a fee.

Toll Reseller -- provides long distance telecommunications services primarily by reselling the long distance telecommunications services of other carriers.

Other Local and Other Toll Service Providers -- other providers of local exchange or toll services, including private service providers (which offer telecommunications services to others and includes companies that offer excess capacity on a private system that is used primarily for internal purposes) and shared tenant service providers (which manage or own multi-tenant locations that provide telecommunications services or facilities to tenants for a fee.)

In its FY 1996 Regulatory Fee Report and Order, the Commission amended its rule regarding the Telecommunications Relay Service Fund administrator to permit the National Exchange Carrier Association (NECA) to process regulatory fees on behalf of its pooling exchange carriers and to submit their consolidated fees to our lockbox bank in a single payment instrument. However, we remind entities subject to regulatory fee payment that the regulatee, not an agent such as NECA, is responsible for ensuring that payment is made, and that there is a penalty for not submitting the entire fee in a timely manner.

Corrections and Updates

If the Applicant's FRN, your six-digit Filer 499 ID, or the company's name/address information needs to be filled in or corrected on your enclosed Form 159-W, please provide or correct that information directly on the form. If filing electronically, this information can be updated online in the Fee Filer. Address information can be updated in the FRN Registration System (CORES). No further documentation is required for such changes.

If you disagree with the dollar amounts on the enclosed bill, further documentation is required. All documentation must accompany your payment, unless you pay online. If you pay online, mail all supporting forms to:

Federal Communications Commission
Office of the Managing Director
Attn: ITSP Regulatory Fee
445 12th Street, S.W., Room 1-A625
Washington D.C. 20554

Documentation required to support changes to the dollar amount:

- (1) your completed FCC Form 159-W Worksheet (blank form is enclosed) OR the pre-filled Form 159-W with corrected amounts.

- (2) your most recently filed FCC Form 499-A Telecommunications Reporting Worksheet.
- (3) if you are correcting the 159-W because there was an error in your FCC Form 499-A filing, you must file a corrected FCC Form 499-A using the procedures specified in the FCC Form 499-A instructions. The 159-W and FCC Form 499-A that you enclose with your regulatory fee payment will not be used to update the FCC Form 499-A database. Furthermore, you will continue to owe the original bill amount until USAC accepts your revised filing.

De Minimis Fee Exemption (Less Than $10): If you received an ITSP fee notification that shows an amount due under $10, you may not be required to pay. Please review the information on the 159-W to ensure that the data used to calculate the fee amount are correct. If the data are correct and your total regulatory fee obligation, including your ITSP fee and all other FCC regulatory fees obligations that you may have, is less than $10, then you do not owe any FCC regulatory fees for 2006. If that is the case, you need not respond to this notification nor make any other filing with the Commission in connection with the ITSP regulatory fee.

Limitations on Credit Card Transactions

The U.S. Treasury has advised the Commission that it will reject Credit Card transactions greater than $99,999.99 from a single credit card in a single day, in accordance with U.S. Treasury Bulletin No. 2005-03. If you need to pay $100,000.00 or more, you should use a check, debit, or wire transfer.

Question 1. What is the FCC Form 499-A Telecommunications Reporting Worksheet?

As required under the Communications Act of 1934, as amended,² the Commission has established, in a series of separate proceedings, procedures to finance interstate telecommunications relay services (TRS), universal service support mechanisms, administration of the North American Numbering Plan (NANPA), and shared costs of local number portability (LNPA). To accomplish these Congressional directed objectives, contributions are collected from all telecommunications carriers providing interstate telecommunications and certain other providers of telecommunications. In 1999, the Commission amended its rules so that for the purpose of determining their contribution(s), contributors to these mechanisms need only file the FCC Form 499-A Telecommunications Reporting Worksheet.³ The FCC Form 499-A is filed by interstate service providers each year on April 1. A copy of the form and instructions can be downloaded at <http://www.fcc.gov/formpage.html>.

Question 2. Which companies must file an FCC Form 499-A?

All providers of telecommunications services within the United States, with very limited exceptions, must file an FCC Form 499-A.⁴ For this purpose, the United States is defined as the contiguous United States, Alaska, Hawaii, American Samoa, Baker Island, Guam, Howland Island, Jarvis Island, Johnston Atoll, Kingman Reef, Midway Island, Navassa Island, the Northern Mariana Islands, Palmyra, Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, and Wake Island. As a general matter, each legal entity that provides interstate telecommunications services for a fee, including each affiliate or subsidiary of an entity, must complete separately and file a copy of the FCC Form 499-A. The Commission, however, has adopted an exception to the separate legal-entity requirement, which enables contributors meeting certain criteria to file the FCC Form 499-A on a consolidated basis.

For purposes of determining whether an entity provides telecommunications, please note that the term "telecommunications" means the transmission, between or among points specified by the user, of information of the user's choosing, without change in the form or content of the information as sent and received. For the purpose of filing, the term "interstate telecommunications" includes, but is not limited to, the following types of services: wireless telephony including cellular and personal communications services (PCS); paging and messaging services; dispatch services; mobile radio services; operator services; access to interexchange service; special access; wide area telecommunications services (WATS); subscriber toll-free services; 900 services; message telephone services (MTS); private line; telex; telegraph; video services; satellite services; and resale services. Note, for example, that all local exchange carriers provide access services and, therefore, provide interstate telecommunications.

³ 1998 Biennial Regulatory Review -- Streamlined Contributor Reporting Requirements Associated with Administration of Telecommunications Relay Services, North American Numbering Plan, Local Number Portability, and Universal Service Support Mechanisms, CC Docket No. 98-171, Report and Order, 14 FCC Rcd 16602 (1999) (Contributor Reporting Requirements Order).

⁴ Section 254(d) applies not only to "every telecommunications carrier that provides interstate telecommunications services" but also to certain "other providers of interstate telecommunications." 47 U.S.C. §254(d) (emphasis added).

Note: entities that offer interstate telecommunications for a fee to the public, even if only to a narrow or limited class of users that utilize their services, must file the FCC Form 499-A and are subject to the universal service contribution requirement. This includes entities that provide interstate telecommunications to entities other than themselves for a fee on a private, contractual basis. In addition, owners of pay telephones, sometimes referred to as "pay telephone aggregators," must file this worksheet. Most telecommunications carriers must file this worksheet even if they qualify for the de minimis exemption under the Commission's rules for universal service.⁵

Question 3. Should all FCC Form 499-A filers also pay ITSP regulatory fees?

No. Interstate service providers that have mobile service or satellite service revenues but that do not have interstate local revenues or interstate toll revenues are exempt from payment of ITSP fees. Interstate service providers that provide service to only other carriers are also exempt from paying ITSP regulatory fees. Governmental entities and entities that are tax exempt under §501 of the Internal Revenue Code are exempt. Carriers whose total regulatory fee payment obligation is less than $10 also are exempt. However, the vast majority of FCC Form 499-A filers are required to pay ITSP regulatory fees.

Question 4. Should a carrier make a regulatory fee payment if it has not filed an FCC Form 499-A?

Yes. If a telecommunications carrier provided interstate telecommunications services in 2005, then it should have filed an FCC Form 499-A, and it must also pay the appropriate regulatory fee payments. The FCC Form 499-A was due on April 1, 2006 and should have contained revenue information for calendar year 2005. Carriers who have not yet filed the FCC Form 499-A should contact the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) at (888) 641-8722 in order to obtain a filing package and to be assigned a 6-digit Filer 499 ID number. If a carrier has forgotten its Filer 499 ID, it may contact USAC at (888) 641-8722, or it may access the Commission's online carrier Locator: <http://gulfoss2.fcc.gov/cib/form499/499a.cfm>.

Question 5. What types of revenues are reported on the FCC Form 499-A?

The FCC Form 499-A requires filers to disclose all revenues from all goods and services, including revenues from non-regulated and non-telecommunications services. Detailed information is submitted for telecommunications services provided to other carriers, for telecommunications provided to end users, and for other goods and services. The detailed information is used to classify revenues. Only certain revenues are subject to the ITSP regulatory fee.

⁵ See Federal-State Joint Board on Universal Service, 1998 Biennial Regulatory Review – Streamlined Contributor Reporting Requirements Associated with Administration of Telecommunications Relay Service, North American Numbering Plan, Local Number Portability, and Universal Service Support Mechanisms, Telecommunications Services for Individuals with Hearing and Speech Disabilities, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Administration of the North American Numbering Plan Cost Recovery Contribution Factor and Fund Size, Number Resource Optimization, Telephone Number Portability, Truth-in-Billing and Billing Format, CC Docket Nos. 96-45, 98-171, 90-571, 92-237, 99-200, 95-116, 98-170, Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and Report and Order, 17 FCC Rcd 3752 (2002).

Question 6. When calculating the ITSP regulatory fee, what kind of costs can be deducted from revenues that appear on FCC Form 499-A?

None. The ITSP regulatory fee is based on billed interstate and international end-user revenues for local and most toll services. Other types of revenues provided on FCC Form 499-A are excluded. Filers are not allowed to deduct any expenses from subject end-user revenues. Filers may not reduce revenues to reflect uncollectible amounts.

Question 7. Where can I call to get help calculating my ITSP regulatory fee?

Call the FCC Financial Operations Help Desk at (877) 480-3201, and select Option 4. Do not complete this form if you have received an ITSP bill and the amounts are correct. File that form, instead.
