FCC Announces Public Hearing On Media Ownership in Tampa-St. Petersburg, FL Area

Washington, DC – The Federal Communications Commission today announced the fourth public hearing on media ownership issues will be held in the Tampa-St. Petersburg, Florida, area in the afternoon and evening on Monday, April 30, 2007.

The hearing will provide an opportunity for those in the Tampa-St. Petersburg area to discuss media ownership, including specific issues facing that local market.

Further details will be released at a later date.

Previous FCC public hearings in the current review of media ownership issues were held in Los Angeles, CA on October 3, 2006; Nashville, TN on December 11, 2006; and Harrisburg, PA on February 23, 2007.
