COMMISSIONER COPPS PLEASED THAT SUPREME COURT WILL REVIEW FOX V. FCC

Washington, D.C.—In response to the Supreme Court’s decision to review the Second Circuit Court of Appeals’ decision in Fox v. FCC, Commissioner Michael J. Copps issued the following statement:

“I’m pleased that the Supreme Court agreed to review the Fox decision. While the FCC has a statutory duty to enforce the indecency laws, I continue to believe that all of us—government, industry, and parents—have a role to play in protecting our children from inappropriate material. The Court’s review will hopefully bring additional clarity to concerned citizens and broadcasters alike.”
