COMMISSIONER COPPS TO VISIT DENVER, COLORADO FOR DTV OUTREACH
Visit is Part of Nationwide Tour Focusing on Markets with High Levels of Over-the-Air Television Viewers

Washington, DC – FCC Commissioner Michael J. Copps announced that he will visit Denver, Colorado, on October 16th to hold a Town Hall on the digital television (DTV) transition. This visit is part of an extensive nationwide initiative the Commission has launched to increase awareness about the upcoming transition to digital television.

Commissioner Copps will be introduced at the Town Hall by Congresswoman Diana DeGette of Colorado's First Congressional District.

WHO: FCC Commissioner Michael J. Copps
WHAT: Town Hall on the DTV Transition
WHEN: Thursday, October 16, 2008, 2:00 P.M. – 3:00 P.M.
WHERE: Circuit City Store #3581
7950 East 49th Avenue
Denver, CO 80238-2874
Phone: 303-373-2627

The FCC identified target television markets for specific DTV outreach, including all those markets in which more than 100,000 households or at least 15% of the households rely solely on over-the-air signals for television reception. The five FCC Commissioners and senior Commission staff will visit these and other markets to raise awareness and educate consumers in the days leading up to the DTV transition on February 17, 2009.
