COMMISSIONER ADELSTEIN TO VISIT CHARLESTON FOR DTV OUTREACH
Visit is Part of Extensive Nationwide Tour Focusing on Markets with High Levels of Over-the-Air Television Viewers

Washington, DC – FCC Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein announced that he will visit Charleston, West Virginia on January 16th to hold a public town hall meeting on the digital television (DTV) transition.

WHO: FCC Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein
WHAT: Public Town Hall on the DTV Transition

WHEN: January 16, 11:45AM to 12:45 PM
WHERE: Tiskelwah Community Center
600 Florida Street
Charleston, West Virginia

The FCC identified target television markets for specific DTV outreach, including all those markets in which more than 100,000 households or at least 15% of the households rely solely on over-the-air signals for television reception. The five FCC Commissioners and senior Commission staff will visit these and other markets to raise awareness and educate consumers in the days leading up to the DTV transition on February 17, 2009.

Reasonable accommodations for people with disabilities are available upon request. Include a description of the accommodation you will need with as much detail as possible. Also include a way we can contact you if we need more information. Please provide as much advance notice as possible; last minute requests will be accepted, but may be impossible to fill.
