FCC CHAIRMAN JULIUS GENACHOWSKI ANNOUNCES
20,000 POUNDS IN 20 DAYS CHAIRMAN’S CHALLENGE
BENEFITING THE “FEDS FEED FAMILIES” FOOD DRIVE

Washington, D.C. – Today, in conjunction with the “Feds Feed Families” food drive, Federal Communications Commission Chairman Julius Genachowski announced a “Chairman’s Challenge” to call on FCC employees to raise 20,000 pounds of food to benefit the D.C. Capital Area Food Bank and other food banks across the country.

“The employees of the FCC have always demonstrated their ability to rise to a challenge and there is no bigger opportunity for impact than to participate in helping the community in which we work,” Chairman Genachowski said.

The “Feds Feed Families” campaign will run until August 28, 2009 and is part of President Barack Obama’s “United We Serve” initiative.
