THE CHAIRMAN

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
WASHINGTON

January 24, 2011

The Honorable Ed Whitfield
U.S. House of Representatives
2368 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Congressman Whitfield:

Thank you for your letter concerning the Commission's January 2010 Notice of Proposed Rulemaking implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA). In particular, you expressed concern about the application of a prior written consent requirement to non-telemarketing calls to mobile devices, the definition of predictive dialers, and the possible elimination of the established business relationship exemption. I appreciate your thoughts on this matter and will ensure that your letter is placed in the record of the proceeding.

The Commission has received hundreds of comments and reply comments on these issues. As in your letter, many commenting parties have expressed support for harmonizing Commission rules with those of the Federal Trade Commission. The staff is reviewing these filings carefully as the Commission moves closer to making a determination in this rulemaking process.

I appreciate your interest in this important matter. Should you have additional questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
