

Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C. 20554

October 12, 2011

By Electronic Mail and Facsimile

John R. Feore, Jr., Esq.
Dow Lohnes PLLC
1200 New Hampshire Ave., N.W.
Suite 800
Washington, D.C. 20036

Re: Applications of Tribune Company, Debtor in Possession, and Licensee Subsidiaries, Debtors-in-Possession, for Consent to Assignment of Broadcast Station Licenses, MB Docket No. 10-104.

Dear Mr. Feore:

We are today stopping the clock on consideration of the license assignment applications related to the proposed transaction bringing the Tribune Companies out of bankruptcy, with retroactive effect. Confirmation of a plan of reorganization in the bankruptcy court has been significantly delayed and has not yet occurred, owing in large part to the Tribune Companies' inability to reach consensus with their creditors with respect to pursuit of potential claims identified in the Report of Kenneth N. Klee, the court appointed examiner.<sup>1</sup> Since the resolution of those issues will determine whether the current application remains viable, or will have to be either substantially amended or withdrawn, the FCC has been unable to complete its review. Accordingly, we stop the clock effective July 26, 2010 (Day 74), which is the date on which Mr. Klee's report was filed. The future running of the clock will depend on developments in the bankruptcy cases.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Barbara Kreisman".

Barbara Kreisman
Chief, Video Division
Media Bureau

---

<sup>1</sup> Mr. Klee filed his report in the Tribune bankruptcy cases on July 26, 2010 (Docket Nos. 5130 through 5134 in Case No. 08-13141-kjc).